(kALI swayamvara, marriage with shanmahishis, dhanyAshcaryAKyAna, slaying of narakAsura, stealing of pArijAta tree, subhadra’s wedding, burning of KAMDavavana)

20.1. yudhishTira got involved in performing yagnas, giving away in charities, accepting the offerings from kings, asking questions and having good debates when listening to the concepts that decide the tenets of philosophy, honoring and respecting sages. Bhima got engaged in religious discourses, propagating the concepts about Hari, protection of the kingdom and other duties.

Notes:
1. This means that King Dharmaraja got engaged in religious duties such as performing Yagnas. Since performing yagnas and such activities are important duties for Kshatriyas, it has been mentioned first. Since Dharmaraja was the emperor, it is obvious that he was worshipped by other kings.
2. Here word ‘prashna’ means the questioner and also questioning. Questioning means asking with authority. People answering will be teachers and people questioning will be kings. If telling is indicative of teaching, questioning is indicative of authority. Therefore in the places where there is chaos, people normally ask “isn’t there anyone to question and counsel here?”
3. Here Dharmanushtana means educating people about the code of conduct for each varNas, implementing and managing them.
4. Establishing the Supremacy of Vishnu, while being the heir to throne was one of the great duties which BImasEna performed. Word “Adi” is applicable to disciplining other nations, punishing people who talk wrong about Vishnu etc.

20.2. Giving guidance about the code of conduct for women, taking care of servant’s welfare, utilizing the funds in the treasury, deliberating on vice and virtues of people in the palace; she also became guide for Bhagavatadharma to people in the queens quarters.

Notes:
1. Analysis of Draupadi’s duties is a unique part which throws light on codes of conduct of women. It is duty of learned women to give education about code of conduct to other women.
2. Here servants mean the people offering services in the queen’s quarters.
3. If earning funds for treasury is the duty of men, utilizing and distributing the funds in the treasury is the duty of the woman of the house. This means that managing finances of the household is one of the important duties of women of the house.
4. Further deliberating on vice and virtues of people means managing the people in the queen’s quarters.
5. The details about the number of people Draupadi managed in this manner, number of sages and noble men who arrived as guests etc are given in the proceeding chapter. (chapter 22/6,7)

20.3. Arjuna was involved in keeping check on other countries. Kings like jarAsaMdha and Keechaka who could not be captured by him where restrained by Bhimasena
Notes:
1. There is a specialty in the fact that Bhima’s duty was to protect their kingdom and Arjuna’s duty was to control other nations. The responsibility of protecting one’s own nation in all directions is big. While other nations can be conquered one after the other.
2. Protecting one’s own nation is a major responsibility involving defending it from many enemies at the same time. Therefore Bhima took charge of it. Arjuna’s duty is of secondary importance. Even in that restraining jarAsaMdha and other’s was Bhimasena’s duty.
3. It is worthy to note that jurisdiction of Bhimasena’s duties was huge.
4. It has been recorded in his life history that SrimanMadhwacharya fulfilled the duties of establishing his doctrines and refutation of other doctrines.

Bhima’s Dharmarajya

20.4. When Bhima captured the other kingdoms, all those who were defeated in the war were rendered jobless. Under Bhima’s rule people naturally got engaged in following vaishNavadharma.

Notes:
1. Bhima’s control of other kingdoms was not only through strength but also through education. As a result of this, people not only were of right conduct but also became thoughtful about Supremacy of Vishnu and thus made their life meaningful.
2. It should also be noted that Jarasandha and others did not get any chance to spread their Shaiva Dharma. It has already been explained in detail that Bhima had done this job extensively earlier when he had arrived to Hastinapura (15-3).

20.5. Older among mAdreya’s nakula had the duty of maintaing payroll of the officials. Younger sahadEva had the duty of being bodyguard and protecting DarmarAja during treaties and conflicts.

Notes:
1. If Nakula had the duty of Payroll, Sahadeva had the responsibility of dealing with conflicts and during treaties with other kingdoms. It has already been mentioned that Sahadeva had been trained in politics by Uddhava and had gained expertise (14/104)

2. It is another specialty of Sahadeva that he served as bodyguard to Dharmaraja

3. It has been mentioned earlier that Sahadeva is the representation of modesty. Sahadeva is the protector of Dharmaraja means that modesty is the embellishment for righteous people.

Dhristadyuma as commander-in-chief of Pandavas of army

20.6. Out of great love towards pAMDavAs dRuShTadyumna stayed in iMradrapsatha all the time as the commander-in-chief of their army. He became a close companion of BImasEna. In this manner their kingdom was complete with all the necessary luxuries.

Notes:

1. dRuShTadyumna is the incarnation of agni; BImasEna is the incarnation of vAyudEvaru. It has already been mentioned that Vayu and agni are friends. ‘marutsaKO hutAshanaH (A.7,shlO.43). Therefore it was but natural that they were friends.

2. There is another specialty here. Air does not need fire. However for fire to burn, it needs Air. Meaning BImasEna does not need dRuShTadyumna’s help. But bhIma’s help is ultimate necessity for dRuShTadyumna.

3. It is special to note that dRuShTadyumna, who is commander-in-chief here, also became the commander-in-chief of pAMDavAs army in Kurukshtre war. In this manner pAMDavAs kingdom was prosperous due to strong administration.

20.7. In their kingdom, due to the rule of BImasEna – there were no non-vaishNavAs, there was no poverty, nobody faced any problems to perform their righteous duties, people never died due to diseases. There were no undue deaths either.
Notes:
1. There were no avaishNavas mean that all of them were devotees of Vishnu, there were no people who were traitors of Vishnu. Since all facilities were provided to perform righteous duties, no person wandered away from the path of righteousness. There was no bothering of epidemics.
2. vytyastamaraNa means youngsters dying when elders are alive, son dying when father is still alive, women becoming widows, accidental deaths etc. Accordingly people faced death following the natural course or during war but never due to diseases etc. These details are present in chapter 11 (11/83)
3. The greatness of their kingdom reminds us of the greatness of rAmA’s Kingdom. rAmA ruling the kingdom means Supreme Lord ruling the earth, bhIma ruling the kingdom means the best among the devotees of Supreme Lord ruling the kingdom.
4. It should be understood that the rule of devotees of Supreme Lord is by HIS grace is similar to the rule of Supreme Lord himself and is beneficial to all the people
5. More details about pAMDavAs rule is described in Chapter 30.

8. People used to visit yudhishTira either to ask for charity, or to get him to do Yagnas or just to meet him but never to get any work done. This is because all the needs would have been fulfilled by BlmasEna.

Notes:
1. This also means that people would never go to yudhishTira for any needs other than accepting gifts or to perform religious sacrifices. Because all other needs of theirs would be satisfied by BlmasEna.
2. The idea is that if all the needs are fulfilled by the heir to throne why go the King? Or it could also be considered as – since all the needs were fulfilled by bhIma, people never went to yudhishTira to get any work done and only went to receive donations and to participate in religious ceremonies.
3. An incident were bhIma fulfills a need which was not fulfilled by dharmarAja is explained in the coming chapter (31/1-5). All the job was completed by bhIma who is the personification of Knowledge means that all the purushArthas(Dharma, Artha, kAma and mOksha – the four goals of human life) can be achieved only through Knowledge which is an example to Anubhashya’s words ‘sarvE&pi puruShArthAH syurj~jAnAdEva na saMshayaH’

4. This could also be interpreted as—since bhIma would not fulfill all the wishes, people needing help would go to yudhishTira. Incident where bhIma did not give funds from treasury to duryOdhana and others to perform the Shraddha (rites performed for ancestors) is a rendering for this interpretation. (30/32-35)

20.9. The gaMdharvas (celestial singers), vidhyAdharAs (celestial men of knowledge), cAraNas (celestial groups) served pAMDavAs just as they served iMdra. All the deities and sages also visited them in order to worship shrI kRushNa.

Notes:
1. All the Pandavas at one point of time had taken the position of iMdra. Amongst them, arjuna was in the position of iMdra in the same manvaMtara. As a result it was appropriate that gaMdharvas and others served them in this manner.
2. Since shrI kRushNa and vyAsa used to be spending most of the time in company of pAMDavAs, deities and Sages came there to make use of the special opportunity to worship shrI kRushNa in person.
3. This incident is similar to rAmAyaNa where brahma and other deities used to come everyday to meet Sri Rama. (9/12)

Kaliyuga which was more glorious than Krutayuga

20.10. During their time, the code of conduct followed during kRutayuga was practiced better than how it was followed during kRutayuga. As a result prosperity in terms of gold, emeralds, clothes and produce from plants were more than what was in kRutayuga.
Notes:
1. In the kingdom of Pandavas practice of Dharma was superior to the practice during kRutayuga. The reason for that was bhIma’s rule under the leadership of shrI kRushNa.
2. Since dharma was established 100%, there was special prosperity due to this in all areas. This is also indicative of the fact all the goals (purushartas) can be attained by dharma. Since all the legs of dharma viz. tapassu (Purificatory spiritual disciplines, severe austerity, penance and sacrifice.), daye (compassion), shoucha (cleanliness of mind and body) and satya (truth) were firmly established, and visible clearly – the time was more glorious than Kruta yuga.
3. It is important to note that only two kingdoms were more glorious than kRutayuga in the history of Mankind. One was Rule of Rama and the other was Rule of dharma under the leadership of bhIma.

Wedding of Dharmaraja and Devaki

20.11. Later dharmaRaja married shishupAla’s daughter dEvaki. She was his wife in earlier birth too. Her brother dRuShTakEtu is the incarnation of anuhlAda along with the presence of Aditya named savitRu.

Notes:
1. Shri kRushNa’s mother dEvaki is the incarnation of aditi. yudhishTira’s wife dEvakiIs the incarnation of yama’s wife shyAmala. It has to be noted that though the name is same they are two different people.
2. dRuShTakEtu is the son of Shishupala. He is the incarnation of prahallAda’s brother anuhlAda. It has to be understood that he had the presence of one of the 12 adityas named savitRu in him.
3. There is an opportunity for one objection here. shishupAla was born after shrI kRushNa. dharmaRaja is older to shrI kRushNa by only one year and five months. So shishupAla’s daughter dEvaki should be very young compared to dharmaRaja.
4. Since she is the wife of dharmaRaja in his original form and also since she is a divine personality such a huge difference in age is not applicable to them.

Swayamvara of kALI

20.12. yudhishTira begot a son by name suhOtra in her. He was the incarnation of yama’s bookkeeper Chitragupta. Draupadi was born in any other form as daughter of the king of kAshi. She is called as kALI.

Notes
1. Son born to yudhishTira in dEvaki is suhOtra who is the incarnation of Chitragupta. BArati dEvi was born as Kali - daughter of king of kAshi.
2. Here chitragupta is mentioned as book keeper meaning the one who keeps the records of people’s vice and virtues.
3. Here the word kRushNA is indicative of BhArati who is the best among the living beings. kALI also means the one with dark complexion. Meaning this form is in a way a form of kRushNA again.
4. Among the existing texts of mahAbhArata, the southern versions mention the name as dEvaki and the northern versions mention her name as dEvika. Some texts mention that she is the daughter of kOvAsa King of shaibhya kingdom. This has to be understood as wrong text or confusion of personalities.

Notes:
1. Just like pArvati and other demi-goddess were present in Draupadi, nobody was present in kALI Devi. It is special to note that this is exclusive incarnation of BAratiDevi. This implies that this is not the fourth birth of the 5 demigoddess.
2. This kALI is also called as jalaMdharA, balaMdharA in south and north Indian versions respectively

20.14. kALI garlanded BImasEna present among them. Angered by this jarAsaMdha and others started insulting devotees of VishNu immensely and praising Shiva charged towards bhIma.

Notes:
1. The rule of the Swayamvara was very simple. Person whom the Lady desires and garlands becomes her husband. Accordingly kALI garlanded her true husband naturally.
2. After that jarAsaMdha and others charged and attacked with anger. It has to be noted that they were sad that they could not get kALI and they were even sadder because BImasEna got kALI. Since BImasEna was a Vaishnava they started insulting all the Vaishnavas.

BhimasEnas Debating style

20.15. At first BImasEna made use of flawless logic and proved that Vedas were flawless, and then used the statements of Vedas and other sadAgamas(The four Vedas, Mahabarata, Pancharatra, Mula Ramayana and such of the purANAs that are not in conflict with the teachings of the Vedas etc are sadAgamas. All other works that follow these also constitute sadAgamas) and won them in the debate.

Notes:
1. Initially he established the validity of Vedas by giving excellent reasoning such as Vedas are apaurushEya (not of human origin), Vedas are the proof as echoed in 'vEdaH pramANaM, apauruShEyatwAt, vyatirEKENa laukika-vAkyat' and then quoted the statements such as 'agnirvai dEvAnAmavamaH viShNuH paramaH', EkO nArAyaNa AsIt', established the supremacy of Vishnu and defeated jarAsaMdhA and other Shaivaites.

2. This argument process can be understood in the background of the debate process in vishNutatvanirNaya work of SriMadhvacharya who is none other than the incarnation of BImasEna.

3. Here nirdushTayukti (flawless reasoning) means immaculate reasoning devoid of faults such as failure and narrow range.

4. It has to be noted that the base for quoting statements of Vedas can be found in the words of work kathAlakshaNa - ‘pRuShThEnAgama EvAdau’.

5. The flaws of reasoning are four in number namely – virOdha (opposition), asaMgati (absurdity), nyUna (deficit) and adhika (excessive). Flaws of Agamas are abhOdhatwa (non-preachable) and viparIIta bhOdakatwa (excessive preaching)

20.16. Shaiva philosophies also proclaim the greatness of Vedas. Accordingly it also refutes those theories such as shAkta, skAMda, saura etc which oppose the Vedas.

Notes:

1. Here Shaiva Shastras means skAnda and other tAmasa puranas. shAktEyaru means group of people who believe that Shakti goddess is the Supreme Lord. People who consider skAMda as the Supreme Lord are called skAndAs and people who consider surya (Sun) as the supreme are called sauras.

2. gAnapata and pAshupatAs can be recognized by their usage of Adi shabda. The antithesis of these groups have been established in the last adhikAraNAs namely patyurAdhikaraNa and utpattyusambhAvAdhikaraNa of samayapAda of brahmasUtrAs

20.17. Even these Shaiva shastras have proclaimed the supremacy of Vishnu over Shiva and other deities. But nowhere in Vedas has it been mentioned that Shiva and others are greater than Vishnu. Bauddhas and others have also clearly mentioned the supremacy of Vishnu.

Notes:
1. The statements ‘shaive ca skAMde’ given as examples in jignAsAdhikAraNa of Brahma sutras are the proof for Shaiva Shastras establishing the supremacy of Vishnu.
2. Similarly Bauddhas proclaiming that their philosophy is the best because their Moola Guru Buddha is the incarnation of Vishnu is rendering of the fact that Vishnu is the Supreme.
3. This also gives reasoning that when non-Vaidikas like Bauddhas have agreed to the Supremacy of Vishnu how can Vedic followers reject this?

20.18. Even CArvakas in some instances have proclaimed that Vishnu is Supreme and Guru to bRuhaspati. Therefore all the philosophies have proclaimed that Vishnu is Supreme and he is the one who grants Mukti (Salvation) to all.

Notes:
1. IOkAyataru means cArvAkaru. Since this religion is spread all over the world it is named so. Some cArvakas mention that bRuhaspati spread the religion of cArvaka in the world on the orders of Vishnu. This is indicative of the fact that they also believe that Vishnu is The Supreme.
2. harivaMsha gives the details of bRuhaspatyAcharyaru promoted the religion of cArvaka.

20.19. Even in other sects, there are mutual disagreements within their own doctrines. Oh Kings! coming back to the topic of Supremacy of VishNu, witness the strength of my arms which are under the shelter of VishNu’s feet.

Notes:
1. Shaiva and other sects have doctrines which do not mutually agree amongst themselves. If Vedas have disagreements with other doctrines, Other sects have disagreement among themselves. Therefore Supremacy of Vishnu as established in Vedas is most acceptable.
2. It is notable that after having said this, BImasEna - great devotee of Vishnu tells that his mighty strength which is second to none is an example of Supremacy of Vishnu meaning the accomplishments of people who believe in Supremacy of Vishnu is far superior to the accomplishments of people who believe in Supremacy of other Deities.
3. This clearly proves that BImasEna who presents the concepts of philosophy as the root cause of his achievements is indeed a great achiever.
4. Discussing pertinent topics with Avaishnavas (non-followers of Vishnu) like jarAsaMdha is in fact unreasonable argument. However as per law, one should just reject the opponent’s argument and should not substantiate his logic. In this scenario question arises that is BImasEna’s argument acceptable? Commentators have given answer for this question. In perverse arguments rule is that one should not substantiate his side facts but there is no rule that stops a person from quoting his side of facts. gItatatparya and nyAyasudha explains that stating just enough facts that gives the opponent an opportunity to reject it is acceptable

vyAgrEshwaraLiMga in HastinApura

20.20. Earlier, in hastinApura the capital city of kauravAs, Ganga came to obstruct my worship to Vishnu. When I pushed her off with my left hand, she was pushed to several Yojanas away. At that time Shiva arrived

Notes:
1. When Bhimasena was sitting on the banks of River Ganga and worshipping Vishnu, Ganga tried to obstruct him by raising her tides. Bhima pushed her away. Ganga was pushed far away, changed her course and started flowing in opposite direction.
2. This means that Bhima informed about the might of his strength by narrating that he was able to push the great Ganges River and make her change her course and he had acquired such strength by being a devotee of Vishnu.

Notes:
1. In order to test bhIma’s devotion, once Shiva pretended to attack pArvati who was in the form of cow. At that time when bhIma struck with his mace, Shiva was defeated; fell unconscious and hid in Linga.
2. Cow is very dear to SriHari. Protecting it is the primary duty of Vaishnava (follower of Vishnu). When bhIma was doing his duty, Shiva could not oppose him and was defeated by the strike of his blow.

20.22. From that time forward, the linga became popular as vyAgralinga. Similarly on another occasion, another battle took place on the banks of River gOmati in the Himalayas. Even there Shiva was defeated and shArdUla linga was formed.

Notes:
1. In similar fashion, Shiva was defeated by Bhima on another occasion and this became famous as shArdUla Linga.
2. This gOmati River is the one which flows from Himalayas towards naimishAraNya. (varadarAjAcAryaRutamaMdasubOdhinI) Not the one which flows westwards towards the ocean in dwAraka. Even here When Shiva pretended to attack pArvati who was in the form of cow, Bhima defeated him as before.

1. In this manner when it is clearly visible that bhIma - devotee of Vishnu has strength superior to Shiva and other deities what other proof is needed to substantiate the strength of Lord Vishnu.
2. As for answer to question as to how can greatness be established by just the strength, for the kshatriyAs, greatness in strength is exemplar of their great nature.

20.24. Shiva was defeated by me in kEdAra and hid in Linga again out of fear. Out of shame he cursed that let this place be unacceptable for men who know Vedas.

Notes:
1. In this manner, as per Shiva’s curse pilgrimage to kEdAra is prohibited for vaishNavas. But it is important to note the reminiscence of kEdAra is not prohibited.
2. Kannada mahAbhAraratAtprayanimaya gives the details about the curse of Shiva that people who go on pilgrimage to kEdara will incur loss of their knowledge. “mahArudra has cursed that Let the knowledge of people who visit this kEdAra kshetra be destroyed”
3. Since this is indicative of his defeat, Shiva was ashamed to show his face to VaishNavas and hence cursed in this manner
4. When Bhimasena who has defeated Shiva three times and made him hide in his linga has indicated that he is greater than Shiva, then Vishnu who is worshipped by such a bhIma is clearly mightier than Shiva and all the other deities. It is already know that bhIma is the future Brahma.

Unique Victory of Bhima

20.25. In this manner when Vishnu’s capacity has been clearly proved, he whose mind is still opposed to this can answer me. Instead if someone wants to just get more agitated, they can immediately come fight me. When bhIma said so, those kings, holding their weapons rushed to fight bhIma.

Notes:
1. Though, it looks like bhIma is proclaiming his greatness, he is actually proclaiming that when a devotee of Vishnu is right in front of them, then the Supremacy of Vishnu who is worshipped by him is proved without doubt.
2. In spite of giving such a visible proof, the kings did not agree to it and rushed to attack him. This clearly shows that they are by nature full of hatred towards Vishnu. Having defeated in scholarly debates, they too wished to win by taking the weapons in hand.

Jarasandha who ended up in Ganges

20.26. BImasEna drove all of them away with bunch of arrows. He struck jarAsaMdha with his mace and dropped him to the floor. Lifted him with both his hands and threw him in river Ganges which has emerged from the feet of Lord Vishnu

Notes:
1. BImasEna struck not only all of them but also their leader jarAsaMdha with his mace and they fell to the ground. Later he lifted him and threw him in Ganges. This is another wonderful example of BImasEna’s strength.
2. There is reason why he threw jarAsaMdha in river Ganges. Just as jarAsaMdha was a great devotee of Shiva, he also hated Vishnu with all his might. Therefore he had vowed that he will never take bath in Ganges which has emerged from feet of Lord Vishnu. bhIma, by throwing him in Ganges not only insulted him physically, but also insulted him mentally by making him break his vow.
3. Even today, some groups of Brahmins do not take bath in Ganges because they consider themselves as devotees of Vishnu. Their reasoning is that though Ganges emerges from feet of Vishnu, it is left-over of what was offered to Shiva. All in all it is surprising to note that just as there are Shaivas who do not take a dip in Ganges, there are also Vaishnavas who do not take dip in Ganges.
4. Kannada Mahabharatatatparyanimaya mentions that jarAsaMdha felt that Ganga while falling from Himalayas is roaring loudly and proclaiming the supremacy of Vishnu. That is the reason why he always had the Drums beating loudly so that he will not listen to the sound of Ganges – such a hater of Vishnu he was. There is another detail as to why bhima threw him in Ganges and insulted him:

"BImasEna tied up jarAsaMdha’s hands and legs and threw him in Ganges. Bhagirati is making a loud noise while descending from Himalayas. In order to avoid that sound, he used to get the drums beaten loudly. When bhIma threw Jarasandha who was listening to the sound of beating drums day and night all twelve months, jarAsaMdha felt like his body was burning in fire with regret that he had fallen in the water emerging from the feet of Vishnu. Though jarAsaMdha was immersed in Bhagirati he was in misery due to his tamass (murkiness). What good can Bhagirati bring to Avaishnavas even if they are immersed in her waters, if they do not have devotion towards Narayana and have made their bad habits as their means of living? For them even Kashi Kshetra is equal to obstacle, it will never give them good results.

5. Even though BImasEna who is the incarnation of vAyudEvaru who gets everybody to have Virajasnana (Bath the soul gets to have after death to get rid of the physical body) himself threw jarAsaMdha in Ganges, he did not attain salvation. The reason for that was he is by innate nature a bad soul and foe of the Lord. That is the reason why Acharya has mentioned that BImasEna threw him in Ganges “prAkShipat” instead of telling that BImasEna got him to have a dip in Ganges.

6. The fact the even balarAma did not have a strength to throw jarAsaMdha like this, indicates the mighty strength of bhIma.

1. In this manner jarAsaMdha was defeated by BImasEna like never before and returned to magadha. Finally he who was defeated by shrI kRushNA eighteen times, saw such a defeat from devotee of Shri kRushNA as well and created a record.
2. This very kAshirAja in the future is mentioned in kurukShEtra war as being on the side of Pandavas in Geeta “kAshirajasheca vIryavAn”(20/5)

kALI’s son sharvarAtA
20.28. Bhimasena sported with kALI dEvī who was considered as most beautiful and good natured in all three worlds and who matched him in all respects and begot a son by name sharvatrAta in her. sharvatrAta in his past birth was a strong and energetic marut by name samAnA.

Notes:
1. sharvatrAta was born due to the marriage of BImasEna and kALI dEvī which was very appropriate. He was one of the 49 maruths and belongs to the group of prANApAnA and his name was samAnA. It is special to note that in this birth he was born as the son of vAydEvaru.

2. In some of the available scripts of mahAbhāArata, his name is mentioned as sarvaga. The reason why he got the name sharvatrAta is explained in a future incident, when ashwattAma on the 18th night of kurukShEtra war, went to the camp of pAMDavAs and brutally killed the upapAMDavAs, as per request of kAshirAja, Shiva took sharvatrAta to kailAsa and protected him.(a. 28, shlO.144).

Shatadhanva is killed by Shri kRushNa

20.29. shrI kRushNa returned to dwAraka along with balarAma and took a vow to kill shatadhanva who had murdered satyabhAma’s father satrAjita. Shatadhanva begged akrUra and kRutavarma for help.

Notes:
1. The reason why shrI kRushNa did not kill shatadhanva immediately after he killed satrAjita was because at the same time he received invitation for Draupadi Swayamvara, and he left to attend the auspicious event and after that he is doing the task of punishing shatadhanva.

2. The reason why shatadhanva asked for help of akrUra and kRutavarma was because they were his partners in this crime.

Notes.
1. akrUra and kRutavarma had got to their senses by then and they never tried to do ill to shri kRushNa.
2. shatadhanva instead of asking for forgiveness and seeking shelter of shri kRushNa fled from there – this proves that he is evil by nature.

20.32. shri kRushNa cut his head with his disc. Though he knew that syamantakamaNi was not with him and it was with akrUra, just to cause illusion he searched shatadhanva’s clothes for maNi; and informed balarAma “he does not have maNi”

Notes:
1. Before fleeing shatadhanva had handed over the precious maNi to akrUra. All knowing shri kRushNa was aware of this. In-spite of that he killed shatadhanva to punish for murdering satrAjita. He pretended to search shatadhanva for maNi and when balarAma arrived there, informed him that shatadhanva did not possess the maNi.
2. Though kRushNa and balarAma left together, balarAma reached there only after kRushNa had killed shatadhanva. This makes it clear that compared to SriHari’s speed balarAma’s speed is very slow.
3. This proves that argument by some people that balarAma is the incarnation of Sri Hari is not correct. As IshAvAsyOpanishat mentions, shri kRushNa by being stationary beats everyone who is running. (‘taddhAvatO&nyAnatyEti tiShThAt’)

balarAma in vidEha – Duryodhana with him

20.33. balarAma did not believe shri kRushNa and out of anger went to vidEha and lived there for five years. duryOdhana, realizing that it is impossible to get shri kRushNa to leave pAMDavAs and come to his side, decided to attract balarAma to his side, and went there.

Notes:
1. balarAma did not believe shri kRushNa and mistook that kRushNa had kept the maNi with him and lied to balarAma that it was not found. And went to vidEha out of indifference. balarAma committed sin by not believing shri kRushNa.
2. It has already been noted that this was one of the important incidents where he had walked out of the path of bhAgavata dharma.(18/19)
3. It can be understood that he lost the opportunity to stay with kRushNa had to part him and live in vidEha for five years because he doubted shri kRushNa .On getting this news duryOdhana went to vidEha. It is impossible to get shri kRushNa to leave the company of pAMDavAs and join his team; at least he can get balarAma to his side, thinking so he went there. harivaMsha mentions it as 60 years, but if it is interpreted as 60 months, then there will not be any objections.
4. This is also indicative of the fact Kali approaches people who parts from shri kRushNa, and also indicative of the fact that kali can have his presence in balarAma.
5. He is the incarnation of shESha. This proves that garuDa, shESha and rudra are all susceptible to kali’s influence.

Notes:
1. This is the time when duryOdhana was the pupil of balarAma and learnt gadAyuddha. He took advantage of shrI kRushNa’s absence and requested balarAma for subhadra’s hand in marriage and got assurance from him as well.
2. This indicates that kali snatches good from noble souls. ‘subhadra’ means good, auspicious.

Balarama’s Promise to duryOdhana that he will give Subhadra’s hand in marriage to him.

20.35. duryOdhana knew that kRushNa will not bypass older brother balarAma’s words and that is the reason why he asked for such a promise. In order to prove that this promise is true, duryOdhana asked balarAma to give his right hand (kind of handshake between two people as mark of commitment) as an assurance. balarAma shook duryOdhana’s hand with his right hand which had the mark of Plough.

Notes:
1. This act indicates that duryOdhana was such a cheat that instead of giving Guru dakshina (fees) for having received education from balarAma, he instead asked for dakShiNa from the Guru. Moreover he was not satisfied with promise verbally and insisted on handshake as a confirmation. balarAma extended his hand which had the mark of plough and gave the promise.
2. It is important to note that shani has attracted Deity like ShESha towards him. tAmraparneeya mentions that, the act of shaking right hand indicates that kShatriyas should promise with the same hand in which they hold weapons.
3. balarAma’s right hand is also indicative of the fact that it had the sign of Plough from his birth. This also indicates that just as kRushNa’s hand not only holds the discus but also has the mark of discus in his hands, balarAma whose weapon is plough naturally has the sign of plough in his palm.
4. tantrasAra mentions that ShESha in his original form is halAMka (hala means Plough).: ‘dadhAnO halasaunaMdau shwEtavarNaH kRutAMjaliH’ (4/81).
5. The disciple who was supposed to hold the feet of the Master insisted on holding the hand of master which is indicative of the fact that in the future during the Swayamvara of lakshanA he would give hand (give hand is a term used when a person cheats the other which is opposite of taking hand which means give promise) to the master.

Background of Subhadra.

20.36. duryOdhana who was attracted to subhadrA especially thought that both kRushNa and balarAma out of love to their younger sister will come under his influence and that is the reason why he took the hand of balarAma (take promise) which is impregnated with the sign of plough

Notes:
1. Here the word “especially” is appropriately applicable for everything. Plan to get both kRushNa and balarAma on his side, plan to get beautiful subhadrA on his side both were present in this scheme duryOdhana had devised.
2. This also indicates that by holding the hands of balarAma that used to thrash the enemies, duryOdhana thrashed the righteous nature of balarAma.

20.37. The one who was trijaTe in previous birth was born as daughter of vasudEva and dEvaki in auspicious and beautiful form as subhadrA.

Notes:
1. trijaTe who was a demon in rAmAyaNa times had served sIta Devi in ashOkavana was now born as subhadrA. She is an apsarA in her true form.
2. This detail also indicates that, though subhadrA was the daughter of vasudEva and dEvaki, since ROhiNi had raised her as her daughter, balarAma who was the son of ROhiNi had in a sense earned the right to give her away in marriage. If this is not the case, then it could give rise to a doubt that it was not appropriate for balarAma to promise that he will give subhadrA (who is not his own sister ) in marriage to duryOdhana.

20.38. Since she had served sītā in her previous birth, she was now born as shrī krishṇa’s beloved sister. Since she had the presence of pārvatī in her she was filled with beauty and virtue. She had the eyes of lotus flower and complexion of the garland of saMpige flower.

Notes:
1. This means that she had earned the merits to be born as shrī krishṇa’s sister because in her previous birth she had served sītā daily for one year in ashokavana.
2. tAmraparneeya gives a special fact that after the death of ṛavaṇa she went to ayodhyā with sītā dEvī and served her there as well. trijaTe just like prahallada, though was born in the clan of demons was in true form good natured like demi-gods. Her beautiful complexion was due to the presence of gowri.

20.39. After accomplishing this, duryodhana left to his country. balarāma stayed back. shrī krishṇa asked akrūra and krutavarma who had settled down elsewhere due to his fear to come back and told them.

Notes:
1. Right after duryodhana left after taking the promise, krishṇa got a chance to get balarāma back to dwāraka. This is indicative of the fact that one gets a chance to get close to shrī hari only after all the demonic qualities have got out of their way.
2. People of dwāraka thought that their city was witnessing, famine, diseases and calamities from the day akrūra left dwāraka. But the fact is that all this happened because he had mistaken shrī krishṇa.

20.40. shrī krishṇa summoned balarāma and in presence of all the yādavas told akrūra ‘show the syamantakamanī you posses to everyone’. akrūra, out of fear showed the maṇi to everyone.

Notes:
1. This is another example of shrī krishṇa’s omniscience. Shri krishṇa displayed his greatness in presence of everyone by revealing the information which akrūra and krutavarma thought was known only to them and no one else.
20.41. shrI kRushNa proved to balarAma that he was not a cheater. Knowing that balarAma, ugrasEna and sAMBha’s mother jAmbavati had desire to own the maNi he spoke further

Notes:
1. shrI kRushNa along with proclaiming his innocence also proved that he is the Supreme Lord. In the form of vyAsa he has established his flawlessness in BrahmasUtra and other doctrines.
2. On one side balarAma by virtue of being the older brother thought that maNi should be his, while on the other side ugrasEna thought that he should own it because he was the king and on another side jAmbavati thought that she should own the maNi because it was given to kRushNa by her father jAmbavaMta during the time of their wedding. In order to solve this problem, shrI kRushNa said :

   AstAmakrUre maNi
   oranyairadhAryaH
   sadA yaj~nAd.h dAnapateH sa dhAryaH na satyA kR^ishhNAvAJNchhitAM kiJNchidichchhet.h
   tathA.api tasyA yogya ityAha kR^ishhNaH

20.42. It is not right for others to own this maNi, since akrUra does yagnas regularly let this pious man who always does charity keep the maNi. kRushNa also said “let satyabhAma decide what is right” though he knew that satyabhAma would never wish to own something which shrI kRushNa did not wish.

Notes:
1. Since her father king satrAjita had performed penance, pleased sUrya and obtained the maNi, satyabhAma was the only person eligible to own the maNi. After sons, even the daughter has the right to father’s property. But satyabhAma never wished to own it, probably because she knew that shrI kRushNa never wanted it. The concept behind this is that the greatness of satyabhAma dEvi who is the most auspicious among parashuklatrayas and also the incarnation of mahAlaxmi will never wish for anything which Hari despises.
2. shrI kRushNa realized that if either of the three of them got it, the other two will be unhappy and therefore made sure that the maNi stays with akrUra. By doing so he also showed the way of avoiding quarrel in such circumstances.
3. By saying that since akrUra is a noble man involved in righteous duties to community and also giving donations to needy, let him keep the maNi he has also indicated that only righteous people involved in such deeds are eligible to keep precious items.
4. It has already been mentioned that the precious maNi would yield 10 bhara worth of gold everyday (Notes of Chapter 17, shloka 202). akrUra used all that gold in religious sacrifices and charity. This decision of shrI kRushNa naturally convinced everyone.

20.43. After officially owning this precious gem, akrUra out of enthusiasm got involved more and more in religious sacrifices and prayers. After having shown the gem to balarAma, kRushNa left to iMdraprastha to meet his beloved pAMDavAs.

Notes:
1. akrUra showed his gratitude by making best use of the maNi given by kRushNa to him by indulging in more and more noble deeds. Since balarAma saw the maNi, his hatred towards kRushNa disappeared and he became devoted to kRushNa as always.
2. This is rendering of the fact that knowledge of perfection leads to devotion.
3. Though there was no special occasion, shrI kRushNa left to iMdraprastha, this was only because of his love towards pAMDavAs.

Wedding of kALiMdI.

20.44. shrI kRushNa stayed in iMdraprastha for a long time. One day when he went hunting with Arjuna, he killed few animals and walked towards the bank of river Yamuna. There , saw Yamuna’s sister, another maiden by name of kALiMdI.

Notes:
1. kALiMdI that shrI kRushNa saw on the banks of river Yamuna was Yamuna’s younger sister. Her name was kALiMdI too.

Notes:
1. King Nagnajith had decided that he will give his daughter nIladEvi in marriage to the person who will restrain these seven oxen. Shrl kRushNa did so and married her.
2. All the other kings tried it and had failed. The reason for that was they were daemons who had the boon of Shiva.
3. We can also remember a similar incident in rAmAvatAra where he had destroyed seven tALa trees with one arrow.

20.47. Later shrI kRushNa married nagnajith’s daughter nILAdEvi. Another maiden by name of nILa who was cowherd earlier entered her body. One person had incarnated in two forms.

Notes:
1. It has already been mentioned that shri kRushNa had married nILAdEvi before his thread ceremony (13/48,49). She is the daughter of yashOda’s older brother kuMbaka. Even in that swayamvara, challenge was to defeat the seven oxen, and it is also interesting to note that her name was nILa too.
2. This was another form of hers. She is born as the princess of kOsala country. Her other name is satyA.

3. pramEyadeepika(10/6) mentions that people who know the traditions tell that – when demi-gods incarnate in two forms, the first form merges in the second form:

\[ \text{dwitIyE sharIrE jAtE taptUrvasharIrEnyEkyamApadyata iti *saMpradAyavidaH} \]

4. Similar incident which is mentioned in the future is that vidura who was born first became one with Dharmaraja (31/63).

5. In this manner, though there are two forms of nIla, the moment he married the second form, the first one merged with the second as a result number of his wives remained six.

Wedding of MitraviMdA

20.48. MitraviMde is daughter of shrI kRushNa’s paternal aunt. She garlanded shrI kRushNa amidst all the kings. Her brother’s viMda and anuviMda opposed it as they had plans of giving her in marriage to duryOdhana.

Notes:

1. shrI kRushNa’s paternal aunt’s name is rAjAdhidEvi, she is the wife of jagatsEna the king of avaMtI country. mitraviMde is their daughter. viMda and anuviMda are her brothers. They wished to get her married to duryOdhana. That is the reason why they opposed her.

2. It has to be understood these two were by nature befitting tamassu qualitites just like rugmiNi’s evil brother rugmi who had wished to give her in marriage to shishupAla. It has to been noted that in the future, they join kaurava party in kurukshetra war and get destroyed.

paternal aunt. Her brothers gave her in marriage to shrI kRushNa. ShrI kRushNa accepted and married her.

Notes:
1. This paternal aunt of shrI kRushNa is shrutakeerti; wife of dhRuShTakEtU who is the king of kEkEya country.

Notes:
1. duryOdhana’s daughter’s name is also lakshaNA. But she is rati wife of kAma, while this lakshaNA is one of the 6 queens of shrI kRushNa.
2. this swayamvara was similar to draupadi’s swayamvara where the challenge was to shoot the target in the form of fish.

Notes:
1. In draupadi’s swayamvara, though the target was not visible directly, it reflection could be see in in the pot of water below. And it had an opening below.
2. There the number of arrows to shoot the target was five; but unlike that the arrangement here was that, there was only a small piece of arrow which was supposed to penetrate the opening which was above the target and hit the invisible target.
3. The differences in the bows have already been mentioned.
4. There the bow had a special boon from Shiva that nobody else will be able to lift it, while this was Shiva’s own bow pinAka.

2. The proposition here is that, while Supreme lord graces his devotees with their wealth, the devotees find pleasure in seeing that the Lord’s wealth reaches him.

20.55. Arjuna, in order to exhibit his skill, did string the bow and also identified the target. But he never shot the arrow correctly on purpose. He knew that she was meant only for shri kRushNa.

Notes:
1. Although arjuna had come there only to witness the happenings, he participated in order to show his capacity to the world. But since he knew that she was destined to be shri kRushNa’s wife, he did not make an effort to win the challenge. Here it appears as though arjuna never shot the arrow.
2. However in bhAgavata it is mentioned that arjuna did shoot the arrow and although it touched the target it was not able to tear it down. Sri vAdirAja swamigalu has cleared this contradiction in a very special way. It is true that arjuna did shoot the arrow as mentioned in bhAgavata. But he did not have an intention to shoot and drop it. AchArya has indicated the fact that arjuna did not shoot the arrow with intent of dropping by telling that arjuna did not pick up the arrow, which does not imply that he never shot the arrow.
3. Since the arrow, did touch the target, people realized that he had identified the target, but since it did not tear away and fall down, it was evident that he had not shot the arrow in appropriate manner. And by not shooting it in right manner he also indicated his knowledge of the fact that she is the wife of shri kRushNa.

20.56. bhImasEna never wished to even see the arrow nor the target. He was a great soul who had realized that it is a sin to try to gain something which is sole property of shrI hari who beholds the disc.

Notes:
1. This is another example that proves that bhImasEna is a stauncher follower of dharma compared to arjuna. bhIma never had a wish to exhibit his capacity as arjuna had wished.
2. To try or think about acquiring something that belongs to shrI kRushNa is already a sin – this was the observance of bhImasEna.
3. On the surface it looks like bhAgavata mentions that bhImasEna could not identify the target just like duryOdhana and others. Sri vAdirAja swamigalu has given a very remarkable explanation for this. duryOdhana and others could not identify the target inspite of all the efforts while bhImasEna never made an effort even to see the target, which clearly explains the difference

While Brahma and other deities were praising the Lord with various hymns, princess lakshana garlanded shri krushna and stood beside him. At the very moment the other kings took up their arms and attacked shri krushna.

Notes:
1. This is indicative of the fact that their stupidity was such that they suffered defeat not only in the challenge but also in the war.

shrI krushNa chased away jarAsaMdha and all others and left to dwArakA city along with bhIma, arjuna and others. These are the eight great queens of shri krushNa. shri krushNa’s beloved divine charming women.

Notes:
1. rugmiNi, sathyabhAma, jAMbhavati, kALiMi, nIlA, mitraviMdA, bhadrA and lakshaNA – these are the 8 great wives of shri krushNa
2. Among them except rugmiNi and sathyabhAma, the others are popularly known as “shaNmahisi” – 6 wives. It is important to note that they are always vishNu’s wives.
3. In the gradation of gods, they occupy the position immediately after garuDa and shEsha. The speciality of jAMbhavati is explained in the following verses.

rugmiNi and sathyabhAma both are 2 forms of Mahalakshmi who is the guardian deity of primordial Matter. She always had her presence in all others. jAMbhavati was the most important among them.

Notes:
1. rugmiNi and sathyabhAma both are incarnation of shri and bhU forms of mAhalakshmi. There is never ever any difference among them.
2. That is the reason why there is ashtamahisi (8 wives) and ShaNmahishi (6 wives) but NOT saptamahiShi(7 wives). The reason for that is both are one and the same.

3. All other wives of shrI kRushNa had the presence of ramA in them; and jAMbavati had special presence of ramA in her. That is the reason why she occupied the higher position among shaNmahishi’s(6 wives)

4. It has already been mentioned earlier that shrI hari will never accept anybody who does not have ramAdEvI’s presence in them as their wife.

20.61. Among kRushNa’s beloved people jAMBavati occupies the same position as balarAma all others are slightly lesser compared to her. Anyone who has higher presence of ramA in them will become very dear to shrI kRushNa.

Notes:
1. If the presence of ramA is higher in jAMBavati she becomes equal to garuDa, shESha and rudra in gradation. When the presence is less she will sin slightly lesser position than them but higher in position compared to the other five wives.

20.62. When the presence of rama is less in them, they still are twenty times higher than kama in gradation. From eternal times they have not married anyone other than shrI kRushNa. shrI kRushNa lived with them happily at dwAraka.

Notes:
1. Here twenty times higher than kama means, higher to kama and iMdra by 20 grades. Similary five times lesser than garuDa and shEsha.
2. Here term “only” pradyumna is mentioned because kama incarnated in this form. If shEsha is the older brother, kama is his son. jAMbavati and others are his wives. Indra did not incarnate as his son. It has to be noted that kamA also incarnated as jAMbavati’s son sAmbha.
3. Analysing in this manner, a peculiar attitude is also explained that wives are dearer than son and older brother is dearer than wives to shrI kRushNa

Notes:
1. Once sage nArada saw a hug turtle on the banks of river Ganga and out of surprise praised it telling you are the most superior being. For which the turtle replied that Ganga who has given shelter to thousands of turtles like me is more superior. For which Ganga replied – varuNa who gives shelter to thousands of rivers like me is superior to me. VarunA said, mother earth in whose shelter I reside is superior to me.
2. Here we should understand the guardian diety of the charactres like turtle used here. Here turtle means pushkara – the guardian diety of karma(duties), Ganga means goddess Ganga. Sea means Varuna. Earth means pArvati the guardian diety of Earth; ‘upalaKshaNayA sauparNi v AruNi grAhya’

Notes:
1. Later sage nArada went to umAdEvi who is referred to as pRuthivi and praised her as AshcharyA and dhanyA. For which she mentioned that shiva, shESha and garuDa are superior to her.
2. Here on the outside it looks like, since they protect the earth, Mountains who are also referred to as bhUdara (protectors of earth) are considered superior to earth. Therefore shiva, shESha and garuDa who are also referred to as Mountains are superior to umAdEvi.

result as per the orders of shrI kRushNa, he bowed to the wheels of shrI kRushNa’s

Notes:
1. All the others were rendered weaponless the moment the came in front of shrI kRushNa
2. But bhIma refused to fight shrI kRushNa with weapons and never came face-to-face with him. The reason for that his vow of following true bhAgavatadharma (never oppose shrI

3. Inspite of that, in order to establish the supremacy of shrI kRushNa, he went near shrI kRushNa’s chariot, bowed to the wheels and restrained it. ShrI kRushNa freed himself from him and moved forward thus establishing his supremacy.

4. It is important to note that just as this incident establishes the Supremacy of shrI kRushNa, it also establishes superiority of bhIma among the living beings.

Notes:
1. Important mention of the fact sage nArada is the disciple of vAyudEvaru. It is well-known that he is the son of brahmadEvaru. It has to be noted that sage nArada’s greatness is very unique due to the fact that he is the son of brahmadEvaru and disciple of future brahmadEvaru. Another important fact to note is that nArada came there and established the Supremacy of Sri hari as per the orders of his teacher vAyudEvaru. He, who came to vyAsaru as per the instructions of his father brahmadEvaru and set foundation for the propagation of bhAgavata, came to shrI kRushNa and publicized that he is The Supreme Lord.
2. This is the reason why it is mentioned that the Supreme Lord had his vibhUti form in sage nArada: ‘dEvarSHINAmasmi nAradaH’. His role in bhArata and purANAs, his propogation of tenets that establish the Supremacy of Lord is held with high esteem.
3. srImadbhAgavatapurANA mentions the special fact that he is the prime dharmic guru in bhAratakhanDa.

Notes:
1. There are lot of misconceptions about rugmini and sathyabhama. Rugmini was noble and soft hearted while sathyabhama used to fight. People think that they had great jealousy towards each other. But this is not true. Both rugmini and sathyabhama are the incarnation of mahalakshmi.

2. Just as sri hari’s matsya, koorma and other forms, these are complete forms of lakshmi and there is no difference between them.

Introduction of bhUdEvi

20.105. At that time, bhUdEvi who is the 5th one among the five vital elements, to whom narakAsura was born from shrI varAhadEvaru, had the special presence bhU form of mahAlakshmi who is the guardian deity of primordial creation. bhUdEvi bowed to shrI kRushNa.

Notes:
1. narakAsura is the son of bhU and vArAha. This bhU dEvi is not the shrI, bhU form of mahAlakshmi. This bhU dEvi is the guardian diety of the mother earth.
2. Since mahAlakshmi had special presence in this bhUdEvi, she became, wife of vishNu.
3. Every morning we pray to this bhUdEvi with the prayer

Coronation of bhagadatta.

20.106. She submitted aditi’s ear-rings at shrI kRushNa’s feet. She also surrendered her grandson bhagadatta. ShrI kRushNa coronated him as the ruler of prAgjOtiSha.

Notes:
1. bhUdEvi surrendered the ear-rings of aditi which iMdra had wanted back. Bhagadatta is narakAsura’s son. He is the incarnation of kubEra who is one among the ashta-dikpAlakas guardian deities of 8 directions). That is the reason why shrI kRushNa crowned him as the king.
2. It has to be noted that just as shRI kRushNa, after killing shRugAla vAsudeva and others had crowned their sons like shakradEva and others, even here he crowned bhagadatta who is the next in charge of the kingdom as king but never took over the kingdom himself.

Notes:
1. That supratIka was one among the ashtadiggajas. It had emerged during churning of ocean (samudramatana). It has already been mentioned that (12/228,229) out of greed towards that elephant, which was snatched away by kubEra was born as narakAsura’s son.

20.108. Only that special elephant was given to bhagadatta. ShrI kRushNa blessed bhUdEvi. He sent 6000 such best elephants which had 4 tusks to dwArAvati. All of them had emerged during churning of ocean.

Notes:
1. As per harivaMsha, the count of elephants was 20000 but as per vishNu purana the count of these elephants were 6000:
2. AchArya has confirmed that the count of elephants were 6000. Although 20,000 might have emerged during churnign of ocean, these 6000 were even more precious among the 20,000.

20.109. narakAsura had defeated demi-gods, gaMdharvas (celestial dancers), nAgarAs (tribes), kings and collected prosperous, gold, huge heaps of gems spanning 200 yOjanas all of which shrI kRushNa sent to dwArakApuri.

20.110. narakAsura had defeated nIRRuti and captured some of mighty demons, with whose help Supreme Lord shrI kRushNa got all these materials shipped to dwArakA.

Notes:
1. narakAsura had a battalion of mighty demons. They were nIRRutis servants. narakAsura had defeated nIRRuti and shipped all of them to his kingdom.
2. It has to be noted that all the miseries caused to demi-gods by narakAsura is described in these verses.

20.111. shrI kRushNa saw the maidens there. All of them were the princesses of the kingdoms whose kings were defeated by narkasura and who narakasura had kidnapped. There were sixteen thousand one hundred princesses. They were very beautiful and of very good conduct. Since they engaged themselves in very good religious modest living, they could not be tyrannized by narakAsura.
Notes:
1. narakAsura had not only stolen gold and other precious gems from the kingdoms but also abducted their maidens. But since all of them were devoted in prayers to the Supreme Lord, he could not tyrannize or abuse them.
2. Since they were indulged in good conduct and living, they were not victims of narakAsura. This is indicative of the fact people who lead a noble life need not have to worry about hell.
3. ‘sadvrata’ means practices which are accepted by vAyudEvaru (‘saditi prANaH’)

Notes:
1. They had performed penance to please vAyudEvaru. It is not acceptable for Male souls to get the body of females. It is not something they can have permanently either. Normally Men get the life of females either. It has already been mentioned earlier (Chapter 11, Verse 112) that normally Male souls get female births either due to boons or curses.
2. bhAgavatapurANa mentions that sudyumna got female birth due to curse by rudradEvaru (9/1). But it is important to note that these men wished to be born as women so that they can become wife’s of shrI kRushNa
3. They knew only vAyudEvaru can grant them a body acceptable by shri hari, therefore they performed penance to please him.

Notes:
1. Even while they were prisoners of NarakAsura, they were indulged in severe penance in order to get kRushNa as their husband.
2. Narada, who had once come there, had told them that shri kRushNa will get them freed from narakAsura and also marry them.
3. It can also be understood that they served vEdavyAsaru along with nArAyaNa in Badari. (janArdanahaaTTakRutapradArthapradIpika)

Notes:
1. This means that though they were equal to ajAnadEvatas in their true form, once they became wives of vishNu, they were elevated to higher grade then ajAnadEvatas due to the presence of ramA in them.
2. It has already been informed that, one cannot get the union of vishNu unless they have the presence of ramA in them ( Chapter – 11)

Notes:
1. shrI kRushNa had informed that he will bring the pArijAta tree and arrived here. satyabhAma dEvi saw the tree here.
2. pArijAta was an extraordinary tree emerged along with kalpataru and mandAra trees during churning

124. satyabhAma dEvi who had the gentle smile resembling the moonlight, face resembling lotus,

Notes:
1. satyabhAma is none other than mahAlakShmi who is ever free from bondage of life and birth (nitya muktalu). She who is always fully content does not have desire of pArijAta or anything else.
2. She who is kalpavRuksha, kamAdhenu and pArijAta to all deities starting from Brahma, will

3. Superlatives in this verse indicate that in spite of her status, she did this to cause illusion to the

132. satyabhAma the most beautiful woman in the universe, mocked iMdira, later iMdira, prayed to her who is the mother of everyone in the universe, “we are exhibiting our childishness in front of the Father of the universe”

Notes:
1. This means that while the asurAvesha of other demi-gods such as the guardian deities of directions diminished due to the sound of shArNgA bow, iMdirA’s asuraveshA diminished when he heard the words of satyabhAma dEvI.
2. satyabhAma dEvI’s words are nothing but words of vEdas. Isnt Mahalakshmi the guardian deity of vEdas! iMdirA’s asurAveshA diminished and he prayed “this is our childishness; please forgive us”.
3. Details of satyabhAma mocking iMdira can be found in bhAgavata (skanda 10, adhyaya 66)
4. This means that satyabhAma is mocking iMdira and asking him “will shachi who was boasting so much about you be on your side if she sees you in this state? “ +

133. Later iMdirA, along with all the other deities, begging for forgiveness surrendered to SrI kRushNa. Surrendered the peak of maNi\parvata (mountain) as a tribute, and bowed to the lord of the universe SrI kRushNa along with satyabhAma dEvI.

Notes:
1. Later iMdirA, along with all the other deities, surrendered to shIr kRushNa and begged for forgiveness. He gave maNi parvata given by SrI kRushNa back to him as a gift. This is the concept of “kereya neeranu kerege challi, hariya karune paDe” pour the water of the lake back into water and earn the blessings of the lord.

134. iMdira requested shrI kRushNa to protect arjuna. ShrI kRushNa assured him that “As long as I am on this earth, nobody can defeat him”.

Notes:
1. It can be noted that by saying so, shrI kRushNa gave indication about arjuna getting defeated by by terrorists (32/45) after he returns to his paraMdhAma.
2. Isn’t that an incident that happened after shrI kRushNa left earth! Seeking protection for arjuna means, iMdira asking protection for himself, as he is arjuna himself.

135. iMdra who received this boon for arjuna, bowed him to over and over again. ShrI kRushNa glanced at him with affection. iMdra who is great bhAgavata, went back to his house.

Notes:
1. Though iMdra had committed offence, he realised the mistake he had committed and repented for it, as a result earned the blessings of shrI kRushNa and joined the group of bhAgavatas.

shrI kRushNa returns to earth

136. shrI kRushNa granted permission to iMdra to return and he came back to his dwArakA city. shrI kRushNa adorned with crown, dazzling ear ornaments, wearing pItambhara and kaustabha was shining brightly.

137. The lord of the lord, who is ever brilliant, flawless cannot be completely described by any superlatives. In spite of that, puranas use such words in order to inform ignorant people
Notes:
1. The splendour of Shri Hari is eternal with no beginning or end. He does not undergo any modification or change at any time. Inspite of that, puranas describe him as shining brilliantly because sometimes he exhibits extra-ordinary splendour so that his greatness can be understood by ignorant people.
2. One should never be under the impression that he shone brightly only at that circumstance. We should recollect that earlier similar phrase was used an example to describe him who is ever raising sun as “Sun was born”. (13/137)

Notes
1. shrI kRushNa begot 10 sons and 1 daughter in each one of the sixteen thousand one hundred maidens. Which means that shrI kRushNa had 1,61,080 sons and 16,108 daughters.
2. It should be noted that by having the same number of sons and daughter in each one of them he proclaimed to the world that he is all-capable and impartial.
3. By begetting 11 children in each on of them he also indicated that he is the hrishIkesha (lord of 11 senses) and ekAdashi vrata is his favorite.

1. bhAnu is son of satyabhAma dEvi. cArudEShNa is the son of rukmiNI dEvi. bhAnu is the incarnation of the son named savitRu.
142. cArudEShNa is the incarnation of gaNEsha. All the other sons of shrI kRushNa are also from demi-gods clan. Similarly all the residents of dwAraka were also people born with presence of deities in them.

Notes:
1. None of shrI kRushNa’s sons were unworthy. All of them were very handsome. It is special to note that either shrI kRushNa’s sons or people who resided in his city – all of them were from clan of demi-gods. The only person unworthy among all of them was shatadhanwa who murdered satrAjita. bhAgavata has recorded about a noble soul by name of shatadhanwa(2/7/44); ‘mAMdhAtralarkashatadhanwanaMtidEvadEvavratAH’. just like 2 bali’s and 2 bANA’s

2. Special attention should be given to the fact the gradation is seen here by the fact that just as shrI kRushNa is superior to iMdra, his son’s are superior to iMdra’s sons.

Notes:
1. Jayanta and vRuShabha burnt down their aerial chariot. Later, these two continued their journey in the sky with the magical powers they possesed.
2. It has already been mentioned that this magical art was taught to pradyumna by ratI dEvi which is a unique art granted by Lord parashurAma. (17/194).

148. With the help of the supernatural art he had learnt from rati, pradyumna carried sAmba and returned to dwAraka. And once nArada came to dwAraka to see how kRushNa runs his family with so many wives.

Notes:
1. Pradyumna, using the knowledge of magic he had learnt, carried sAmbha and returned to city flying in the air. Both of them being incarnation of the same person aided this as well.
2. This is the incident when nAradaru left to dwAraka to see how shrI kRushNa leads his life with 16108 wives.

nAradaru goes to meet pAMDavAs

149. nAradaru witnessed with awe that shrI kRushNa took different forms in each of the 16,108 houses and lead life with each of the wife, bowed to him and left to iMdraprastha. pAMDavAs welcomed him with respect.

Notes:
1. SrImad BAgavata extensively describes the manner in which shrI kRushNa resided in each of the wife’s house seperately and was involved in different activites.(skanda 10, adhyAya 29)
2. In each of the house, kRushNa welcomed nArada with great enthusiasm and showed that he is very fond of his devotees.
3. It has already been mentioned in the previous verse that nAradaru had not come there to test shrI kRushNa but only to find out the manner in which he did that.

150. Accordingly, only draupadi should be present with bhIma, the other demi-goddess present in her body should be in dormant state and let only BAratidEvi enjoy the complete bliss – this was the message from brahma dEvaru which nAradru delivered to pAMDavAs.
Notes:
1. nAradaru had come there to give this important message from brahma to pAMDavAs. As per the message, the idea was to make sure that only BIma and draupadi were true husband and wife.

brothers sunda and upasanda killed each other.

151. Two brothers named sunda and upasanda, had received boons from brahma as a result of which they could be killed only by each other and nobody else. Both of them fought with each other for tilOttame and killed each other. She was created by brahma dEvaru to kill these two demons.

Notes:
1. sunda and upasanda were both born in the lineage of hiraNyakashipu. They had received a peculiar boon from brahma. They had received a boon that only two of them can kill each other and not from anybody else. They thought that since they had mutual understanding in all the aspects, they could never have misunderstanding at any time and as a result it would be impossible for them to face death because of each other. After having received such a boon, they used to trouble sages, ascetics and cause disruption to religious activities. At that time, after having requested by Demi-Gods brahma got vishwakarma to create this beautiful maiden tilOttame.
2. A small part of the most beautiful and precious items of the universe were collected, using which she was created, hence she was called tilOttame.

152. Therefore let Draupadi lead life with each one of you for a year in order, when she is with one person, if the other one sees her, he should go on pilgrimage for a year.” They conducted accordingly.

Notes:
1. Till then Draupadi would spend one day with one person, from now she started living with one person for a year in order.
2. Here suMdOpasaMda’s story indicates a very special concept. Men can have mutual understanding with everything in the world, but when it comes to woman, they can never mutually agree in sharing a woman.
3. This answers some people’s imaginary story that kuMti got all of them to marry one single woman as a plan to keep all of them united.
4. If indeed kuMti had used this as a plan to keep all her sons united, all the other mother’s could have used kuMti as an example and did the same thing. Even gAmdhAri could have got all her 100 sons married to a single woman.
5. Also kuMti should not have given arjunA permission to marry subhadrA and others. Or she should have asked each one of them to marry all her five sons. None of this happened. And it could not have happened either.
6. In the generations of mankind that has followed, the fact that no one else followed this, clearly indicates how nasty some people’s imagination is.
7. The bad effects of such an arrangement have been explained by shrI vEdavyAsa through suMdOpasaMdha story with a hidden meaning.
8. Some of them have imagined that this tradition of many men marrying one woman existed in pAMcAlAs. This is not true. There is no record of existence of such traditions in pAMcAlAs. Since drupada had only one daughter, there was no way of having such marriage again for him. This again leads us to be certaing that this is yet another imagination that needs to be ignored.
9. brahma dEvaru informed this story of suMdOpasaMda to pAMDavAs just to make them aware of suMdOpasaMda’s downfall.
10. But this will never be applicable to pAMDavAs. Reason has already been explained that pAMDavas had not actually married one single woman. With the intent that people of the world should understand this fact, brahma dEvaru sent this message for such an arrangement through nArada.
11. Versions from north India mentions that if the rule is broken, the person who broke the rule should follow austerity for 12 years where as southern versions record them as 12 months.
12. veMkaTacala mahAtme in skAMda purAna also mentions the rule as one year: ‘tEnaikahAyanamitaM vidhEyaM tIrthasEvanam’. (29/25)

13. If the versions having 12 years, are understood as 12 months following the method explained in vanaparva in future (22/109), then there will not be any differences. It should also be noted that if we want to stick to 12 year period, then we cannot reconcile pAMDava’s total lifespan.

14. For followers of this camp (who think it was 12 years), the explanation that each of upapAMDavas were one year apart (bhArata Adi. 22/85) will not reconcile either. This is another incomptibility (verse 212)

Arjuna protects cows and brAhmaNas

153. Later, one day when Draupadi was spending time with Dharmaraja privately in the armoury, Arjuna saw them. He had gone there to take weapons, in order to protect cows of a brAhmaNa. He killed the theives with the weapons and got ready to go on a piligrimage.

Notes:

1. Once some theives stole a brahmana’s cows. Brahmana rushed to pAMDAVas seeking help. Getting the information, arjuna went to armoury to collect the weapons so that he can stop the theives. Even though he knew that Draupadi and dharmarAja were in the armoury, he realised the importance of protecting the brahmaNa’s cows and decided that, “even if it results in him having to practice austerity and go on piligrimage, he would still do the right duty of protecting cows, “ and went to armoury and picked up the weapons. He stopped the theives and returned the cows to brAhmaNa

2. The commitment arjuna showed in this instance in order to protect brAhmaNa and his cows is very great. Such commitment of his made him the favorite of shrI kRushNa who is prayed as “gObrAhmaNahitAya ca”.

3. It is also noteworthy that, the sacrifice he made here for the welfare of brahmaNa yielded result in the form of him getting married to subhadra.

4. There is another interesting fact here. If it was bhima instead of arjuna, there would not be a need for weapons. bhima is a person who never used help of arms and ammunitions to fight. He who had all his strength in his own arms, did not need any help from other arms.

5. The difference between bhima and arjuna can be found from this incident. But the fact that arjuna followed highest dharma within his limitations.

Arjuna’s pilgrimage

154. Even though dharmarAja and others stopped him out of affection, arjuna left for pilgrimage in order to follow the rules. Once when he was bathing in ganges, serpent maiden ulUpi took him to the kingdom of serpents in fraction of a second using her magical powers.

Notes:
1. Since arjuna had not commited this offense on purpose, yudhishtira and others asked him to not go on pilgrimage. But arjuna, left in order to keep up the promise.
2. They would never bypass dharma with any excuse. This is a big exemplar exhibited by arjuna to the world. It has to be noted that, in the world filled with people who are always trying to find excuse to bypass dharma, Arjun’s conduct is so distinctive.
3. When arjuna leaves for pilgrimage, he takes different types of people with him *. Among them, there were some scholars well versed in history and puraNAs. mahAbhArata mentions that the place where arjuna was bathing at that time was haridwAra.

Notes:
1. This is a very important saying which establishes the rule for a child born from parents who belong to different castes. If both a man and woman belong to same caste, then the child is of the same caste as well. However if the child is born to a following anuloma method (man and woman belong to different caste) , then the child gets the caste of the mother.
2. Interesting fact to note is that the child gets his qualities from the father. The rule that qualities the child gets is from his father is however limited to sons only. rAmAyana * mentions that a daughter naturally gets her qualities from her mother.

3. But since word “probably” is used in this sentence, this is a general rule. This also means that there could be exceptions. This is the reason why vyAsa – son of parAshara and satyavati, was not Kshatriya like his mother but a brahmaNa following his father’s caste.

4. Commentators have given examples like a noble son like prahlada and useless sons like virOcana.

5. By calling iravaMta as arjunA’s first son, it has been made clear that babruvAhana and others are all born later.

158. Later, arjunA continued pilgrimage and reached the country of pAMDya. irAvaMta, along with his mother ulUpi were outcasted by nAgas. He was respected with honor in heaven by demi-gods and he lived with them there.

Notes:

1. Though arjunA had begot irAvaMta following the rules prescribed by law, nAgas did not accept either ulUpi or irAvaMta and outcasted them. ulUpi went to heaven along with her son and lived there.

2. Since irAvaMta was the son of arjuna who is the incarnation of iMdra, the demi-gods accepted him and gave him permission to live in the heaven.

3. Since he himself was also partial incarnation of maMgala, he was accepted by demi-gods.

4. irAvaMta fought extraordinarily in mahAbhArata war on pAMDava’s side and was finally killed by a daemon named AlaMbusa (25/84).

Arjuna has not earned the sin of breaking the rules.

159. Arjuna who was a very knowledgeable person had not incurred any flaw of violating the rules. Shastras have put in a clause that highly knowlegable souls don’t incur any sins normal people would except the sin of cheating his own people.

Notes:
1. There is a chance of arjuna incurring two flaws in case of ulUpi. One is violating the rule of austerity, second is union with a widow. But since this was not a marriage but just a niyOga, the second flaw is ruled out.
2. Next is violating austerity; since he is an enlightened soul, knowledgeable men do not incur any sins due to their actions after they have attained enlightenment.
3. The only sin enlightened souls can incur is the one got by wronging noble people. Since this is not wronging noble people, this will definitely not cause downfall to arjuna. What Chandra and sugreeva did was union with other people’s wife as a result it was sinful. Just a promise made by ashwattAma that he will beget children in duryOdhana’s wife resulted in him loosing his brahmacharya (28/117, 28/168)
4. In ashwattAma’s case flaw was only pertaining to the laws of humans. By reading between the lines of different scriptures it should be understood that, he did incur sin which would restrict him in enjoying the bliss of salvation.

Arjuna and citrAMgadhA’s wedding

160. Out of special affection towards him, older brothers’ dharmarAja and bImasena forgave arjuna’s offence. At the end of the year, veerasEna the king of pAMDya country gave his daughter citrAMGadha who was a good match for arjuna in all respects, in marriage to arjuna.

Notes:
1. Both bhIma and dharmarAja being older brothers of arjuna, they are at higher position to him.bhima being vAyudevaru was also superior to arjuna in their true form. As a result does this not mean that arjuna committed offence? The question is answered here - since both of them loved their younger brother so much that they forgave him, as a result he did not incur sin
2. This also means that offence towards superiors becomes sin only when they are unhappy. Since both of his brothers were not upset it was not a sin for him.

Shaci is citrAMgade

161. vIrasEna has presence of twaShTru and yama. And the maiden citrAMgade is the incarnation of shaci. Since she had a union with sugrIva when she was tArA she could not return to heaven. She had to wander in the skies and then be born again.

Notes:
1. Demi-gods who are born on earth, have to return back to heaven and get in union with their true form when their incarnation ends. This is what happens normally.
2. But during their incarnation, if they commit mighty sin that could stop them from getting back to their true form, then the incarnated form cannot join the true form. This special fact can be understood from here.
3. tArA who was vAli's wife, after his death married sugrIva and had conjugal relation with him. SugrIva is the incarnation of Sun. SugrIva who is incarnation of sun is way inferior in gradation to vAli who is incarnation of iMdra. Similarly tArA who is the incarnation of shaci is also very superior which means shaci incurred great sin by having union with sugrIva who is not only inferior to her husband but also to her. Therefore she could not join back with her true form 'na bhartRulOkamRucCati' (12/24)
4. Therefore though she went to heaven, since she could not join back with her true form, she had to wander in space and later incarnate on earth again. It has to be noted that these details are given here using the term "sUryajasya".

JayaMta is babhruvAhana

162. This is the reason why she could not get very close to arjuna. He begot babhruvAhana in her following putrikAputra dharma. babhruvAhana is jayaMta. He also has presence of manmata in him.

Notes:
1. Due to the sin shaci had accumulated when she was born as tArA she had to not only be born again as chitrAmgada but also that she could not live together with arjuna for long time. Arjuna lived with her for only 3 months after the wedding and left.
2. Since the wedding was as per putrikAputra dharma she had to stay back at her father's place for many years to take care of her son. Later she went back to paMDavas place only during the time of rAjasUya yAga. The incidents during ashwamedha yAga indicate that, even after she lived with babhruvAhana.
3. All these make it very clear that she did not spend much time with arjuna.
4. BabhruvAhana is the incarnation of iMdra's son jayaMta. He also has the presence of kAma in him.
Since he was born following putrikAputra dharma he belonged to pAMDya clan and not pAMDav's lineage.

Arjuna liberates crocodiles

163. After having begot a brave son, arjuna continued his journey to prabhAsa and en-route while he was bathing in the river five apsaras who were born as crocodiles due to a curse came and caught him and he dragged them to shore as a result they were freed of their curse.

164. Those five apsaras were cursed by a brahmana. When all of them surrendered to him and asked for forgiveness, he was pleased and told them: "if one person single handedly drags all of you to the shore, you will be freed of your curse and get back to your true form."

Notes:
1. Names of the five apsaras were respectively * vargA, saurabhEyI, samIcI, budbudA and latA. vArga was the chief among them.
2. Once when they made fun of a brahmana who was doing penance, they got cursed by him to be born as crocodiles. When they requested him to forgive them, he said that when a person single handedly drags all of you to shore, your birth as crocodiles will end and you will get back your true form. As a result, all of them were born as crocodiles in kanyatIrtha.
3. When arjuna was bathing there, all of them attacked him and caught his leg, when arjuna dragged all of them to the shore. At the very moment they were liberated from their curse.
4. From that day forward, the tIrtha was called as *nArItrtha. It can be guessed that this kanyAtIrtha is the same one in kanyAkumari :

   nArItrthAni nAmmEha KyAtiM yAsyaMti sarvashaH || -bhArata (Adi.216/11)

5. It is a well known story that crocodile was liberated when it caught the feet of gajEMdra; but here it is interesting to note that 5 crocodiles were liberated when they held the feet of dEvEMdra.
6. While shrI Hari arrived there to liberate, here he got it done by iMdra.
7. The 5 crocodiles are the representation of shabda (words) and other 5 evil thoughts. Arjuna had capacity to escape from them. Meaning people who listen and contemplate gets the strength to escape from evil thoughts.
8. Just like how the life in kanyAtIrtha became a means for them to get liberated from the birth of crocodiles, practice of AnaMdatIrtha by noble souls will be a means for them to escape from being born as lower species.
9. There is another extra-ordinary event recorded * in mahAbhArata where once when arjuna was in gurukula, a crocodile attacked and caught guru drONaChArya's feet, arjuna rushed there immediately and shot 5 arrows at the crocodile and got his master released.

Arjuna as ascetic near dwAraka

166. Arjuna carefully considered the task he had to carry out, disguised as a sage and went to dwAraka. kRuShNa who was leaning on satyabhAma and relaxing on the couch, got to know that arjuna had arrived and laughed loudly.

Notes:

1. Arjuna disguised as tridaMDi sage at that time meaning he was accepting sanyAsa with three daMDAs(canèes), shika(tuft) and yagnOpavIta(sacred thread).
2. He wished wedding with subhadra but disguised himself as ascetic. Ascetic is an indication of someone renouncing family life, but arjuna is disguising as ascetic in order to get married and have a family life is an interesting thing to note. This might be the reason for shrI krUshNa’s loud laughter.

Notes:
1. satyabhAme questioning and kRushNa answering - it has to be specially noted that for all knowing it is just a past time. kRushNa going to meet arjuna is an example of kRushNa's affection towards his devotees.
2. Taking satyabhAme with him is an indication of getting him married.

Notes:
1. While balarAma promised suyOdhana, kRuShNa promised arjuna. Balarama holds hala in his hand while kRuShNa holds chakra (disc). In this manner among the both of them holding different symbols in their hands, on the outside it is interesting to see whose words will work.
2. In a way it is important to note that this extra-ordinary incident has been the pioneer of the process of elections these days where each part has its own symbols.
3. But it is the splendour of shrI kRushNa that his Chakra Symbol always truimphs. It might also be noted that, by promising in this manner, shrI kRushNa indicated that he had the capacity to nullify the promises of other deities.

169. BalarAma came to visit Arjuna who was in the disguise of a distinguished yati, and honoured and worshipped him along with his relatives. Even arjuna bowed to him with great respect and told him “You are superior to me in qualities”.

Notes:
1. On hearing that a lord had arrived, Balarama, went along with the Yadavas, and bowed to Arjuna and honored him.
2. It is not surprising that Arjuna was shocked when Sheshadevaru’s incarnation – Balarama bowed to him.
3. In order to get wash away the sin he had incurred by letting Balarama, who was superior to him in age, capacity and everything else, Arjuna who was not even a true sage, and also younger in age prostrated to Balarama. He also praised Balarama by telling that he was superior to him in qualities. By doing so, he also earned Balarama’s special affection.

170. On observing that Arjuna who was in disguise as a Sanyasi was an expert in all fields and also a very good orator, he told Krsna “during the period of chaturmasya, arrange for accommodation for the sage near maiden’s quarters (kanyAgara) and provide all facilities to him“. Krsna explaining the shortcomings of this arrangement said he cannot do it.

Notes:
1. Carried away by Arjuna’s modesty and other qualities, Balarama thought that he was a very special sage, and since chaturmasya period was fast approaching, decided that he should arrange for Arjuna’s chAturmAsya in their city, and gave the responsibility of arranging everything to Krsna.
2. This also indicates that chAturmAsya is a very special duty applicable to sages. It is a well known fact in shastras a person who serves sages during this period earns lots of virtues.
3. When Naradaru who was son of a Shudra lady, served sages during chaturmasya, he earned the fortune of being born as brahma’s son in next birth (bhAgavata skanda 1, chapter 6). Kunti, by serving dUrvAsaru during this period, was imparted with a unique Mantra, and in the future she was fortunate to be blessed with supermundane sons like paMDavas with this mantra. (11/147-150).
4. Here the word “varShakAle” although means monsoon season, the gist is it was period of chaturmAsya.

171. He is very young, strong, handsome, very good orator; therefore it is not befitting to give him accommodation in kanyAgAra. When the supreme Lord shri Krsna spoke in this manner, Balarama said “it is not befitting to have suspicion towards an educated person”.

Notes:
1. It should also be noted that by describing arjuna in this manner, krushna indicated that he is a suitable groom for subhadra. The fact that balarAma could not recognize true form of arjuna is a rendering of the fact that other than raju devatAs worldly knowledge of even tAtwikadevAtAs, could be flawed (ayathARtha) (‘bAhyaM kadAcidayathArthamapi’ – pramANapaddhati).
2. This also confirms the fact some people’s argument that he (balarAma) is shri hari’s incarnation is wrong. By disapproving in this manner, krushna proceeds to get arjuna married to subhadra – this is shri krushna’s style!
3. This is an example of shri krushna’s unimaginable astounding strenght that he made balarAma who had wished to give subhadra in marriage to suyOdhana, actually help arjuna wed subhadra.

172. “In my opinion, this does not sound right. But since your decision is very revered for all of us, let it be so”. Saying so shri krushna told his younger sister subhadra – “this sage is a very noble man; serve him well”.

Notes:
1. By telling balarAma is the older one, shri krushna is showing how small balarAma is. By saying so, he also made sure that balarAma would not get any chance to object him in the future.

Notes:
1. It has to be noted that, while krushna told her to serve him well, he also warned her not to be negligent. Arjuna trusted in shri krushna’s word and completed chaturmasya there without any worries.
2. Since it was cAturmAsya, there was no chance of wedding taking place, it has to be understood that there was no need to be tensed:

174. When arjuna requested, “I will truly give subhadra in marriage to you”, nobody knew about this promise by shrI kRushNa other than parents vasudEva, dEvaki, vipRuthu and satyAki.

Notes:
1. vipRuthu is the yAdava sEnApati – this detail is explained in verse later (shlo. 193). More information about satyAki is also given in next verse.

175. satyAki is the disciple of shrI kRushNa and arjuna in fields of astra, shastra and tatwa education. Therefore shrI kRushNa had told him everything. He had also told this to vipRuthu because he was also shrI kRushNa’s disciple.

Notes:
1. satyAki is disciple of shrI kRushNa and arjuna. kRushNa is the person who gets them married, arjuna is the person who is getting married, means this is the most rejoicing news for satyAki, there he was informed about this.

176. Though uddhava, akrRra, kRutavarama and others knew very well that pAMDavA’s were very dear to shrI kRushNa, as per balarAmA’s instructions were hesistant to agree to give subhadrA’s hand in marriage to arjuna.

Notes:
1. It has to be noted that, they have been addressed as “Chinna dharma’s” (18/20)

177. Though all of them knew that this was not liked by shrI kRushNa, they had wished to give subhadrA in marriage to duryOdhana, in order to please balarAmA – this was due to asurAvesha in them (demonic influence). That is the reason shrI kRushNa cheated all of them.
Notes:
1. Acharya has mentioned the reason why shrI kRushNa did not tell this to anyone except satyAki and others. Though uddhava and others were great devotees of shrI kRushNa, at that time due to demonic influence, they acted in opposition to shrI kRushNa in order to please balarAma, due to this reason shrI kRushNa did not tell anybody about this.
2. Even if they had known, it would not affect shrI kRushNa’s decision in any ways. But due to demonic influence they lost the chance of acquiring this special virtue, because they did not act in accordance to shrI kRushNa’s decision.
3. This also means that duryOdhana had not succeeded in attracting balarAma towards him but through balarAma had got uddhava and others on his side as well.
4. People under the influence of asurAs do not understand shrI kRushNa’s views; similarly they will not understand the true meanings and views of brahmasUtra, bhArata and other works composed by vAsiShTakRuShna vyAsa.

178. In similar manner, pradyumna, sAMba and others have been cheated by shrI kRushNa. All of them went to piMDOddhAra with balarAma. Many festivities were taking place there one after the other. Once subhadra asked arjuna:

Notes:
1. All yadavAs went to piMDOddhAra kshEtra along with balarAma. Since there were continuous festivities happening there, they could not return back soon. Making use of that situation, subhadrA asked arjuna.
2. It has to be noted that till that time, she did not know that the sage she was serving was arjuna. Arjuna had behaved with such a retinue and had gained the affection of shrI kRushNa. Such restraint of mind is what got him the eligibility to listen to bhagavadgItA in the future.

180. She further questioned “Oh revered one! I have learnt from brAhmaNAs that arjuna has set out on pilgrimage as well. Did you meet him anywhere?” arjuna replied, “Yes I met him”. She asked “where?”

Notes:
1. This indicates how eager subhadrA was about arjuna. Just as arjuna had wished to marry subhadrA, she had wished to marry arjuna as well. It is special to note that, while balarAma without understanding her feelings, had decided to give her in marriage to duryOdhana, shrI kRushNa had decided to give her in marriage to arjuna as per her wish.
2. By doing so he also proclaimed to world that, girl’s wish is a must for the wedding.
3. Another interesting issue to be noted is that, balarAma – the incarnation of shESha who controls our minds, did not know the wish of subhadrA.
4. This is an exemplar for the fact that, first of all shrI kRushNa who is the controller of all senses is none other than shrI Hari. It is special to note the art of questioning by subhadrA, where she does not directly ask about arjuna but gradually comes lands at the question.

181. Arjuna said “I have met him here” with a smile. At that point subhadrA repeatedly questioned “where?” “where?” Arjuna replied “oh foolish woman! I am him’.
subhadrA was extremely happy and stared at him wide-eyed.

Notes:
1. Subhadra’s joy knew no bounds when she came to know that the ascetic whom she had served till then was none other arjuna.

182. Later subhadrA who had the eyes which was like kennaidile (flower), out of joy and shyness did not speak. Arjuna who was filled with lust said "this is the right time for us to get married". She told him.

Notes:
1. Though arjuna was filled with lust and asked subhadra to marry her in gandharva style , subhadra disagreed. This indicates her superior upbringing. Her resolution that it is her duty to act according to shri krushna's approval is indeed a very good role model for others.
2. It is very special to note that, being krushna's sister, in this circumstance she exhibited higher resolve than arjuna. This is the best example of good virtues of cultured women.
3. She opined that marrying as per normal traditions is her wish. This also indicates that, though gandharva wedding is acceptable and holy to kshatriyas, when elders are already preparing to get them married as per normal traditions, violating that and getting married in gandharva style is not correct.

183. It is not right to evade krushna. Therefore when he gets my parents to give my hand in wedding to you, come along with your relatives and marry me. At that time, he prayed to shri krushna.

Notes:
1. This means that, as soon as arjuna thought about him, shri krushna arrived there with all the important people that need to be present for the wedding. vasudev and dEvaki to give the bride in wedding, iMdra and shachi to accept the bride as their daughter-in-law, sages and ascetics to be part of the celebration and prosper.
2. The summary is that a marriage in presence of both bride and groom's parents and noble men like sages...

SubhadrA's Wedding

184. At the same moment, shri krushna arrived there with vasudEva and dEvaki. Since arjuna had remembered him, dEvEMdra had affectionately arrived there at night along with shachi dEvi and great sages.

Notes:
1. This means that, as soon as arjuna thought about him, shri krushna arrived there with all the important people that need to be present for the wedding. vasudEva and dEvaki to give the bride in wedding, iMdra and shachi to accept the bride as their daughter-in-law, sages and ascetics to be part of the celebration and prosper.
2. The summary is that a marriage in presence of both bride and groom's parents and noble men like sages...

Notes:
1. shrI kRuShNa left with other yadavAs to piMDOddhAra kshEtra. When arjuna remembered him, he came there, got him married and went back.
2. kRuShNa giving chariot to arjuna is an indication that for noble acheivers, he gives a capable body and graces them. Doesn't kaThOpanishat describe body as chariot?

Arjuna leaves with subhadra

187. When arjuna was about to leave in chariot filled with all weapons, holding bow in his hands there was a commution in dwAraka. "What is this? This tridandi yati is holding the bow in his hand and kidnapping the maiden!"

Notes:
1. It was astonishing to the people of dwAraka. The yati who had spent all of cAturmasya holding dAMda(a stick carried by ascetics) was now running away with the maiden.

Arjuna's wonderful archery skills

189. Later arjuna who was shielded with armor on his hand wore the quiver, strung the bow and with the skills he had practiced and the strength he had gained from his education, filled the skies and all the directions with arrows.

SubhadrAs charioteering

190. SubhadrA who had been trained very well in charioteering from shrI kRushNA just for this occasion became the charioteer. Having stopped by her, arjuna did not hurt anyone with arrows. He playfully fought the war.

Notes:
1. It is another example of arjuna's archery skills that though he shot enormous amount of arrows, he never hurt a single yadava soldier.
2. Details of how Ekalavya shot arrows in a dog’s mouth without hurting it have been given earlier (15/61). But the fact that arjuna shot uncountable arrows and yet did not hurt single soldier of that mighty army is a rendering of the fact that he is way more expert archer than Ekalavya. This also makes it clear that Ekalavya did not know any special archery skills which were unknown to arjuna. such a mighty war was just like a sport for him.
3. It is special to note that just as shrI kRuShNa who is none other than nArayaNa took rugmiNi, supreme among humans, arjuna by the grace of nArayaNa took subhadra.
191. Arjuna showered arrows and terrified all of them and drove them away with his most amazing and expert war skills. He came out of the city and saw vipR^ithu who was appointed by balarAma to guard the city.

vipR^ithu's devotion towards krishna

192. Even vipR^ithu pretended to be like one of the people who wanted to please balarAma and surrounded arjuna with his army. As per kRushNa's instructions he did not pose strong opposition to arjuna. He just fought as a pretext

Notes:
1. It was obligation on both sides for vipR^ithu. On one side he was appointed by balarAma and from the other side instructed by shrI kRushNa.
2. Devotion towards shrI kRushNa and fear towards balarAma, therefore in order to please balarAma though he pretended to fight, in order to please kRushNa he actually fought very mildly in such a way there was no obstacle to arjuna.

193. vipR^ithu is one of the maruth’s by name saumya. He had incarnated and born on earth in order to serve shrI kRushNa. Arjuna showered arrows on that yadava in such a way that he was not hurt.

Notes:
1. It was obligation on both sides for vipR^ithu. On one side he was appointed by balarAma and from the other side instructed by shrI kRushNa.
2. Devotion towards shrI kRushNa and fear towards balarAma, therefore in order to please balarAma though he pretended to fight, in order to please kRushNa he actually fought very mildly in such a way there was no obstacle to arjuna.

194. Arjuna rendered him chariot-less and weapon-less. He did not destroy his army. vipR^ithu was excited to see that such sharp arrows of arjuna did not even bruise the skin of any of soldiers.

Notes:
1. While vipRuthu had a very mild stand against arjuna as per kRushNa’s orders, arjuna also had a very mild stand against them knowing that they were all devotees of shri kRushNa. vipRuthu recognised that.

2. vipRuthu was extremely pleased by arjuna’s expertise in archery, whereby he shot such sharp arrows on all of them in such a way that it did not hurt them.

197. Shri Krsna got all the information from vipRuthi and came to sudharmasabha. He sat with his head bent down as thought he was very upset and sad. Pradyumna and other great yadAva warriors spoke in loud voices.

Notes:
1. This means that Shri Krsna pretended as though he knew nothing; and was pretending that he was very upset just like them and sat with his head bet down.

198. When they said that “let us immediately kill that impostor who tricked us with his disguise, and bring back subhadra, balarama said “all of you can’t go on your will, make sure you get permission of Shri Krsna before leaving”.

Notes:
1. Even in such a fit of anger, balarama instructed everyone to act according to shri krsna’s orders and proved how great devotee of krsna he was.
2. This also indicates that he had understood that all this misfortune was due to the fact that he did not listen to krsna earlier, and that he decided that he should not commit the same mistake again.

199. When balarama said “First we have to seek krsna’s opinion. We cannot win if we go against his wishes”, all of them bowed to krsna and asked him.

200. Shri Krsna of infinite strenght spoke: “All of you listen to my words, I had told earlier that this charlatan is not fit to be around a maiden “

201. Even though I explained so many flaws, this brother of mine did not listen to me. Since I should not disobey the words of elder brother, I went ahead and made preparations to accomodate this cheater arjuna in the maiden’s palace.

202. All that has happened is past. He has kidnapped the girl when none of us were here. So this will not bring us any ill-fame. He who is very egoistic has cast ill-fame on himself. All of us know that he is arjuna as per vipRuthu’s information.

Notes:
1. It is a black mark for arjuna who has reputation of being a great warrior. Since he has done this when none of them were around, this does not bring any ill-fame to them.

203. “We have to give maiden in marriage to him, there is no other groom who is equal to pArtha. He is of kuru lineage, grandson of vyAsa of absolute strength. He is our maternal aunt’s son, a great warrior and a person with very good virtues.

Notes:
1. kRushNa has substantiated that arjuna is the most suitable match for subhadra by talking about his family, relationship, qualities and many other virtues.
2. By telling that he is from kuru family, grandson of vyAsa, son of maternal aunt, person with good qualities ,he is indicating that duryOdhana - the groom chosen by balarAma is neither such a relative nor possesses such good qualities , and is not such a brave person either.
3. We can also conclude that by saying so, he is indicating that , if she had got married to duryOdhana , then it was a matter of worry, but why should they worry when she is marrying arjuna.
4. It is important to note that this verse describes an ideal groom.
204. “In the first place, we should have taken the proposal ourselves to him, who is the son of iMdra. But he himself has kidnapped the bride now. Our job is not ruined due to this. If we chase him and attack him now, and if we lose, then it is an insult to us.”

Notes:
1. When he himself has taken the bride away, whom we should have gone and asked, what has gone wrong? Now if you go and fight him and loose, then it is a definite defame for you.
2. kRushNa warns here that even if balarAma, pradyumna and others fight, they cannot win over arjuna.
3. How can these people defeat him who will return to iMdraprastha and will be under the protection of bhIma?

205. shrI kRushNa said “even if defeat him and bring the girl back, nobody will be willing to marry her who has been touched by another man. Therefore I don’t see it right for you to chase him.” and became silent.

Notes:
1. Even in case they defeat arjuna it is of no use because who will marry her who had run away with arjuna? In this manner, either victory or defeat is both losses to them and not to him.
2. We have to understand that kRushNa has also taught us how to analyse a situation beyond our control.

206. After listening to kRushNa’s words, balarAma spoke “Don’t go, I know his wish. Obeying him is the sure means for victory, prosperity, peace and salvation in the other worlds.

Notes:
1. These words of balarAma clearly indicate his repentance for not listening kRushNa’s words earlier. It also indicates his firm resolve to not to disobey his words in the future.
2. His announcement here that following kRushNa’s order is the means to achieve victory, prosperity, peace and salvation is very deep seated.
3. Here victory of kRushNa’s resolve and failure of balarAma’s decision is a perfect example for the dasara saying “haricitta satya haricitta naracittakke baMdaddu lavalEshanaDeyadu”. What kRushNa said took place, but intention of shEsha who was incarnated as balarAma did not happen.
4. This also indicates that when intention of shEhsa who as born as human did not succeed, how can intent of us humans succeed.

Arjuna in iMdraprashta

207. kRushNa’s message is that there is no defeat for anyone who is in company of arjuna. As per kRushNa’s orders, arjuna rode in that chariot along with his wife and reached iMdraprashta protected by his brothers.

209. kRushNa came to iMdraprastha bringing carts filled with precious gems and was worshipped by pAMDavAs. He along with balarAma gave jewelry to pAMDavAs, draupadi and his sister subhadrA.

210. balarAma stayed there for few months and returned to dwAraka. kRushNa worshipped by pAMDavAs stayed back and lived there for many years. By doing so, he showed his special affection towards them.

Notes:
1. Mention of the fact that kRushNa stayed with them for many years is indicative of his special affection towards them.

211. Five good-cultured sons were born to draupadi. All of them were vishwEdevatAs – and also had the presence of revered gandharvAs citraratha, abhitAmra, kishOra, gopAla and bala.

Notes:
1. Five vishwEdevatAs along with presence of chitraratha and other gandharvas were born as draupadi’s sons. These VishwadevatAs are the son of yamadharma and dhaksprajApati’s daughter vishwA.
2. vishwEdevatAs are 10 in number by name of kratu, dakSha, satya, vasu, dhUri, IOcana, pUrU, kArdrava, kAma and kAla. MRkArMDEyapurANa mentions that, among them, 5 were born as upa pAMDavAs.
3. All of them were born on earth due to the curse of sage vishwAmitra* and were killed by ashwattAma before they got married.

Notes:
1. We should understand that five upapAMDavAs are respectively pativiMdy and others - prativiMdy is yudhiShThira, shrutasOma is bhIma's son, shrutakIrthi is arjunA's son, and remaining two are nakula and sahadEvA's son.
2. Each of them were one year* apart.
3. When prativiMdy was born to yudhiShThira, arjuna was on piligrimage. Later shrutasOma was born to bhImasEna. By then arjuna had married subhadra and abhimanyu was born to her. Later shrutakIrthi was born to him in draupadi.
4. This makes it clear the arjuna’s piligrimage was only one year; babruvAhana’s birth and other incidents took place after the completion of one year. Abhimanyu is arjuna’s third son. First two are irAvAn and babruvAhana

Birth of abhimanyu

213. abhimanyu is budha with special presence of chaMdra. He incarnated in subhadrA’s womb from arjuna. He also had the presence of yamadharma, vAyu, iMdra and ashwinI devatas. shrIkRushNa also resided in him.

Notes:
1. Abhimanyu is the incarnation of budha, he also had special presence of chaMdra in him. He also has the presence of yama and other devatas, the true form of pancha pAMDavAs. And more importantly he had the special presence of shrI kRushNa in him.

2. pAMDavA’s are of chaMdra’s lineage. chaMdra’s son is budha. In this manner, it was special for moola purusha of the dynasty to be incarnated in this family with presence of both chaMdra and budha. Being the ancestor of the family, by incarnating as Arjuna’s son, his purpose of incarnation was fulfilled. Further, his son parIkShidrAja was the successor of this dynasty indicating that this was like the resurrection of chaMdraMsha.

3. Therefore with the special presence of different demi-gods, Abhimanyu occupied a very meritorious position among pAMDava Heros.

Greatness of abhimanyu among pAMDava sons

214. All of them were extremely courageous, handsome, devotees of vishNu, and knowledgable in all the shAstras. pAMDavas were very happy about their sons and specially happy with subhadrA’s son abhimanyu.

Notes:

1. Among all the sons of pAMDavas, from the above explained reasons, abhimanyu had acquired greatness and was considered as the most revered. The most important reason was that he was the son of subhadrA. subhadrA is kRushNa’s sister, being in kRushNa’s family gave immense greatness to abhimanyu.

2. His son parIkshidrAja became the successor. He heard SrImadbhAgavatapurANa from shuka muni and proceeded to vaikuMTa.

3. parIkshitA’s son janamEjaya heard mahAbhArata and found fulfillment of his birth.

4. abhimanyu’s father arjuna got to drink the nectar of gita that flowed from shrI kRushNa’s mouth.

5. It is very important to note that the whole family created a world record of great achievers who were the direct audience of the famous and most noble works – bhagavadgItA, bhAgavata and mahAbhArata. SrimadAchArya has indicated all of this using the phrase “vishEShataH sAtwatI naMdanEna”

Notes:

1. The reason for agni to come in the disguise of brahmana is kRushNa is brahmaNyadEva, he always grants good wishes to brAhmaNas. Therefore in order to indicate that all the wishes will be fulfilled if he comes in this disguise.
2. The reason why agni asked for food is because as per shAstra we have to give food when asked - 'annasya kShudhitaM pAtraM'.
3. Instead of coming in his true form as demi-god, praying to lord as brAhmaNa yields faster result.

1. Agni is famous as the mouth of demi-gods meaning demi-gods receivehavissu that has been offered to agni(fire). Agni's duty is to deliver offerings to respective demi-gods. Once agni asked the demi-gods to give him compensation for this job. They agreed and gave him offerings by name of prayAja and anuyAja as salary; and also cursed him "let your digestive power deteriorate".

2. This is indicative of the fact that expecting fruits for any work will result in loss of power. - 'mA phalEshu kadAcana'.

3. samit, tanUnapAt, iT , barhi, swAhAkAra are the five Ajya offerings that are named as prayAja. barhi, narAshAmsa, swiShTakRudagni are three ajyAhuti named anuyAja.

4. prayAja is the offering that needs to be offered before the prime sacrifice. anuyAja offering is done after the sacrifice with the remains of the sacrifice. Agni is the demi-god for all these offering. This is the boon of demi-gods to him as per his wish.

5. A king by name of shwEtaki was performing yAga continously as a result of which the rutviks and priests were so tired and disagreed to offer their services, so the king worshipped shiva by performing penance for 12 years and performed aviccinma aiyadArAhOma. Later as per shivAs orders, dUrvAsa who was incarnation of shiva arrived there and got him to perform satrayAga.

6. There is another detail in mahAbhArata which mentions that due to this yAga which was performed continously for 12 years, agni suffered from indigestion.

Notes:
1. As per brahmA's words agni had tried to burn KAMDavavana seven times and failed. Everytime he tried, iMdra would bring rain showers and ruin the job of burning. Therefore in order to eat without any interruptions, agni requested arjuna.

2. Since arjunA is incarnation of iMdra, agni asked him. It is important to note that, as per norms of society, father will not oppose what son gives as arjuna is iMdra's son.

221. Since arjuna had the presence of human in him and since he had promised to give food to agni, though he was iMdra himself, he opposed iMdra. kRushNa's inspiration was the most important reason. Agni requested arjuna in order to resolve the enemity of iMdra.

Notes:
1. Three reasons have been given here for arjuna opposing his own true form iMdra - he had the presence of human, the promise he made to donate food and most important of all kRushNa's inspiration.

Notes:
1. Since agni knew that, without kRushNa's approval , arjuna would not fight his own true form iMdra he requested even kRushNa and not just arjuna.
2. Agni had also considered the fact that since arjuna is iMdra himself, he would not act against the promise he had made.

agni offers chakra to shri kRushNa

223. Since arjuna will not be succesful in this task without the help of kRushNa, agni asked the permission of kRushNa also. Later he went to sri Hari in badari, received chakra from him and offered it to shri kRushNa

Notes:
1. One other reason why agni requested both of them was because he knew that without kRushNa’s inspiration and help arjuna will not be capable of opposing iMdra.
2. As per arjuna’s wish, agni who left to get him chariot and bow, went to badari first, received chakra (disc) from Lord nArayaNa, submitted to shri kRushNa. This means that, first offering is always to shri hari.

offering of gAMDIva etc to arjuna
225. agni gave gAMDIva bow to arjuna, it is the bow of brahma dEvaru. With that, brahma devaru can suppress everything. He had given a part of it shiva .Similarly he had given it to iMdra, chaMdra and varuNa.

Notes:
1. shAr~ga is vishNu’s bow, pinAka is shivA’s bow and gAMDIva is brahma’s bow.

2. In this manner, since gAMDIva was God brahmA’s bow, arjuna who held it was able to accomplish different matchless victories.

226. Using the same bow, all of them won all three worlds respectively with the blessings of brahmadEvaru. No body else could carry that bow. It bestows victory, weighs hundreds and thousand of bhAras (1 bhAra = 2000 palas of gold, 1 pala = four karSas,1 karSa = 16 maaSas) and is auspicious.

Notes:
1. This gAMDIva is the main reason for triumph of shivA and others. Only due to brahmA’s boon they were able to carry that bow which is impossible for others.

gAMDIva – brahma’s bow
227. Auspicious chariot pulled by white horses, it had two auspicious quivers in which the arrows would never exhaust and Rama’s flag bearing symbol of hanumanta – agni got all this from varuna and gave it to arjuna.

Notes:
1. Vadirajya mentions the special fact this chariot was the same one offered by iMdra to rAmadeva during the war between rAma and rAvaNa.
2. Since this chariot was pulled by white horses and arjuna rode on this, arjuna was called as shwEtavAhana. ‘(tataH shwEtahairuyuktE mahati syaMdane sthitau’ – bhagavadgita).’ It is one among his 10 names :

   arjunaH phalgunO jiShNuH kirITI shwEtavAhanaH |
   bIbhatsurvijayaH kRuShNaH savyasAcI dhanaMjayaH || - bhArata(viraTa. 44/9)

228. if hanumanta is present in the flag, one will get a special invincible strength. Is he not the representation of Victory? all of them were divine and invulnerable. The string of gAMDiva had the radiance of lightening.

Notes:
1. It is mentioned in the following verses (27/54) that gAMDiva and other weapons are invulnerable, though gAMDiva was not uncuttable, its string has the the splendor of electricity and if cut could grow back.
229. Due to kRushNa’s grace, arjuna was able to carry this bow which nobody could carry. Shiva and others could carry it due to special boon by God brahma. Only brahma could carry it with his own strength.

Notes:
1. Arjuna was able to carry gAMDIva due to the grace of shrI kRushNa. He had this special grace to carry it only till the time kRushNa returned to his world (paraMdhAma). In the next chapters it is mentioned that, after kRushNa left, it became impossible for arjuna to carry it (32/46)

230. brahmadEvaru had given boon to iMdra. That is the reason why arjuna was able to carry it. Because iMdra was born as arjuna. Arjuna created a fence of arrows around KAMDavavana.

Notes:
1. Just like kRushNa’s mercy, even brahmadevaru’s boon made it possible for arjuna to carry the bow. Brahma had given iMdra boon to carry it and since arjuna was the incarnation of iMdra, it was boon to arjuna too.
2. agnI's wish was that he should be able to eat entire KAMDavavana along with entire plants,trees and animals. That is the reason why arjuna created a net-like fence around the entire forest with abhimantrita (bind something with a Mantra ) arrows so that nobody can escape.
3. With the foresight that water from showers which iMdra might shower might enter in and interrupt agni, arjuna also built a terrace of arrows.
4. Just like how bhIshma built dam for gaMga with the skills imparted to him by parashurAma, his grandson arjuna with the help of gAMDIva built such a wonderful fence around kAMDavavana. Arjuna is grandson of bhIshma, being student of drONa, he is second generation student of parashurAma.

Burning of KAMDavavana

231. Arjuna quickly built a huge net of arrows which was about 12 yOjanAs. Even agni also caught fire and started burning the with shining flames.
232. Looking at his forest being burnt down by fire, thousand eyed iMdra's thinking capacity started deteriorating he started sending showers the size of a chariot and tried to suppress flames.

Notes:
1. In truth arjuna did not have any deterioration of thinking. In the next verses it is explained that he pretended to have so (234).

233. kRushNa and arjuna stopped the rain with arrows and opposed iMdra accompanied by the demi-god community. He was defeated. He was happy to see his son arjunA’s strength.

Notes:
1. MahabhArata mentions special fact that at that time, celestial voice instructed iMdra to stop the war.
234. Seeing the affection kRushNa had on arjuna, and also arjuna’s mighty strength, iMdra was very happy and he took back the thunderstorms. He bowed to kRushNa and hugged his son arjuna.

Notes:
1. iMdra who had been defeated by kRushNa during the time of gOvardhanOddharaNa, faced defeat once again here. But he did not have demonic presence like the previous time but his mind was filled with love and affection which is very special and that needs to be noted.

1. Four birds were jaritAri, sArisRukwa, staMbamitra and drONa. All of them were sons (in the form of birds) of a sage by name maMdapAla. Since he had not had any progeny, he was not able to go to pitRulOka (world of fore-fathers). Seeing no other way of escaping from agni, his mother swallowed him upside down. That is she swallowed his head first and rest of the body later.
4. They thought that if they were not spotted by kRushNa and arjuna, both of them could escape. In case they were spotted, and they cut the mother’s head, they would not know about ashwasena inside and he would live.

Notes:
1. She pierced the arrow roof with the help of her posionous breath and jumped out, when arjuna indicated by kRushNa, cut her head. When she fell down, ashwsEna came outside, though his head was protected, his tail got cut. iMdra saved him.
2. One one side he was mourning his mothers death and on the other hand he was sad that his tail got cut. Therefore in rage of anger, he who took shelter in karNa’s quiver to take revenge on arjuna was killed by arjuna(27/183) in the war between karNa and arjuna.

241. When maya holding chakra in his hand, saw krishna seeing him, he sought protection of arjuna. Krishna did not kill him for arjuna. Though he was a protean (mAyAvi), he was a great devotee of krishna as well, hence krishna did not kill him.

Notes:
1. Maya was one among everyone who tried to escape from the forest. But while he was trying to escape, krishna saw him. He sought protection of arjuna to save his life. On arjuna's request, krishna did not kill him.
2. Though he was the architect of daityas, since he was a great devotee of krishna, he did not kill mayA.
Since he was an expert protean he was called mayA - this is indicated by the expression 'atimayAM'
3. Vishwakarma is the architect of demigods and mayA is the architect of daityAs. But it is special to note that both are noble souls. Just like guru of demigods bRuhaspati and daitya's guru shukra - both are noble.

Notes:
1. The reason why maya surrendered to arjuna and not kRushNa is given here. The reason of kRushNa's anger on him is because he is the enemy of demigods. But arjuna is the king of demigods. By surrendering to him, he can prove that he is not the enemy of demigods. kRushNa will be pleased by this and will protect him - with this intent he did so.
2. This is also substantiation of the fact that it is best to seek protection of devotees of shrI hari in order to gain his affection. mayAsura's daughter is mAMDoDari which means he is rAvaNA's father-in-law.
3. He is the one who built the three cities for tripurasuras. The rakshas mAYAvi and duMDubhi who were

Notes:
1. When maya wanted to return the favour as a mark of gratitude, arjunA’s reply was extremely mysterious "I am not the one who saved you but it is kRushNa".
2. This is noble thought - "nAhaM kartA hariH kartA", shri hari is the doer of everything. Therefore, service and offerings to shri hari is the ultimate form of gratitude.
